Summary: (machine translated)
river walk

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Karpenisi in southwestern direction to Prousos (31 km). From here continue in a southerly direction. We leave the main road to Thermos/Lampiri to the right, continue straight towards Kastania and come down to the bridge at the exit of the Mavri Spilia canyon. We continue, passing above the village of Tornos, to Kastania. Here we continue - now on a dirt road - towards Prodromos. 4,5 km after Prodromos we come down to the bridge over the Platanaki, the end point of our walk. Here we park one car.
With the other one we go up to Prodromos, pass through the scattered houses and continue towards Grana. We pass the dirt road that branches off at an acute angle to the left towards Roska and immediately after (before the next houses) we can easily park the second car on the right.

Approach: (machine translated)
We continue along the road to Grana in a southerly direction for a few hundred meters and then turn right (here - also- parking for access possible), down onto a dirt road on which we reach the houses of Rachi Milou (here then 4wd vehicle indicated) . Right around the first house on the edge of the slope, a footpath leads down to the entry above an old arched bridge.

Tour: (machine translated)
Impressive great canyon with many fossils.

Return: (machine translated)
After the road bridge, turn right up to the road.
