Summary: (machine translated)
Simple canyon except for its third jump, an impressive vertical of 60 m. Generally dry except after rains.
Caution, they have removed several times the plates in the R3.

Hydrology:
Sí

Access: (machine translated)
We have to get on the TF28 in the district of Icor (Arico).
After the p.k. 47 we have the bridge over our ravine, a few meters after is the hamlet where we can park the access vehicle.
With the return vehicle, previously, we will have gone down the TF622 towards Las Eras or Autopista Sur. When arriving just to Las Eras, with views to the sea and the highway next to it, the road makes a left turn and goes out on the right towards the back of a street that goes down towards the ravine. We will follow the track almost to the windmill.

Approach: (machine translated)
We will go back to the bridge, next to it there is a path that leads us down to the riverbed.

Tour:
Ver topo

Return: (machine translated)
About 200m before reaching the highway, we will find the track where we have parked on the left, next to the mills.
