Access to the Cueva de la A and Fontanal Banks
Two options:
* By the return trail, leaving to the west, in search of the Fontanal ferrata, we will pass the end of our ravine and soon we reach the foot of the ferrata, when we leave the top we go to the right to the head of the ravine.
* By the path that goes north to exceed the cliffs by the east spur once up we will follow the milestones to the west / left over the wall to the head of the ravine.

Simple except for the final rappel, which is very spectacular.
