Summary: (machine translated)
Canyon to combine with the Corba, it would not make sense to do it alone as it has no great interest, a few rappels from natural in a fairly open environment. Generally dry except after rains but quite slippery all year round as it always keeps some moisture.
Re-equipped in 2024 by members of EGAN, for updated information contact them https://espeleogrupanoia.blogspot.com/

Hydrology:
Sí

Access: (machine translated)
Take the N260 to Ribes de Fresser. When arriving at the village take the detour to Bruguera GIV5263, after crossing the village we continue towards the Coll de Jou and in a curve of 180 to the left we leave the vehicle.

Approach: (machine translated)
By the path that goes to the E towards the Pla dels Dois, there we will cross the torrent of the Font de la Llobina and the path will turn to the south towards the Torrent del Col de Jou, when the path turns again to the E to go up the divide we will leave it to go to the right towards the stream.

Tour:
Ver topo

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel, a path leads off to the right, turns into a track a few meters further on and takes us to the bend where we have parked.
