Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Foz de Fuenfría, it is a generally dry canyon, very fun, equipped with a cable for the ascent, which is a kind of via ferrata, and the descent with a zip line.

Hydrology:
Difíciles

Access: (machine translated)
Access bcos Rasal
We must be located in Rasal.
We can go from Puente de la Reina or from Huesca by the A132 to the Peña reservoir, here we will turn off by the A1205 towards the Garona Valley. And here we will take the detour to Rasal crossing the beautiful bridge over the Gállego.
You can also take the A23/N330 to Arguis, here we will take the small road that will take us through the valley of the Garona to Rasal.
In the pk 6,7 we will find an abandoned track in which we will be able to get in and park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Moliniello and Fuenfría Banks
From the track we will descend to the bed of the Garona, we will cross it and we will continue by the track that leaves in front next to the stream of Fuenfría. We will follow this abandoned track towards the Foz that we will see in front of us. At the end it will get into the same gorge, and we will see some cairns that will lead us to the way equipped to climb to the head of the ravine.

Tour: (machine translated)
Fun canyon for its access and development.

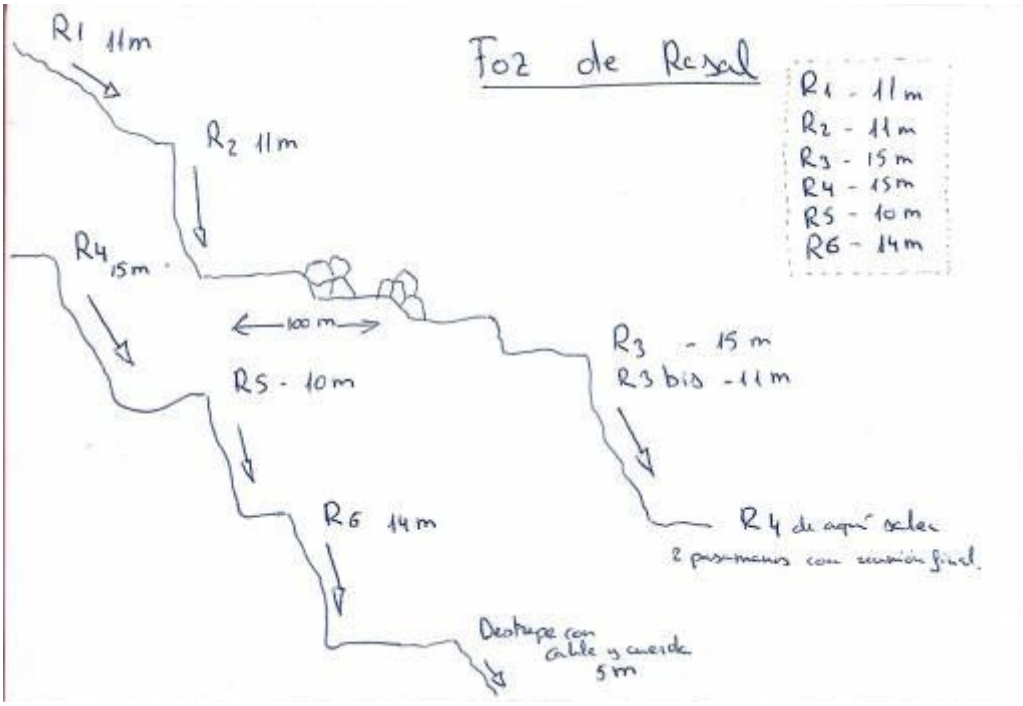

Return: (machine translated)
At the end of the gorge we will return to the access path.

Coordinates:
Canyon Start 42.3719 -0.6101
