Summary: (machine translated) Simple ravine without vertical grades, nice boxed areas and perfect to start. Better to avoid after rains so that there are no pools with rotten water.
Hydrology: (machine translated) Possible in more open areas
Access: (machine translated) We have to take the TF28 in Villa de Arico. We will pass the p.k. 60 towards 61, going down to the bridge over our ravine, just after passing it we have an asphalt road on our right, we get in and park the access vehicle. The return vehicle, previously we will have left it going down from the p.k. 61.5 in La Cisnera, towards the highway. After going down the curves we will find a track on the left that takes us to the climbing area.
Approach: (machine translated) We go back over the bridge for about 100m to take the path that goes down to the river.
