Summary: (machine translated)
Relatively short and not very deep cut rock gully.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Belluno on the SR204, later SR203 in the direction of Agordo. After 8 km And just after the village of Mas we turn left over the Fiume Cordevole. Immediately after the bridge we turn right, not towards Sospirolo, but towards Mis. In this way we reach the houses of Rosse Alte (540m altitude) and we park our car at the northwest end of the houses at the exit of the road (see also approach from Belluno or Ponte Mas in photo gallery).

Approach: (machine translated)
Here begins a path - at its junction we stay left (signpost; white-red marking) - up towards Nusieda Alta (see https://youtu.be/FRCTylLozGU). We cross the Cal San Daniel, then another ditch and stay right at the next fork of the path. The next valley cut is then the Val Carpenada (entry).

Tour: (machine translated)
A total of 13 rappel. After the highest rappel (C28) exit possibility on a crossing path to the left. The exit is at the Lago del Mis reservoir.

Return: (machine translated)
Around to the left, at first probably floating; as soon as the steepness of the bank allows it, we climb up and further in the forest steeply up until we reach the path that crossed the canyon after the 28m rappel. Turning to the right, we reach the path that gave us access. On this path we return to the car.
