Summary: (machine translated)
Small rappel canyon in fairly open terrain. Access to the upper parts is prohibited.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Leave the N 340 highway (Malaga - Nerja) at Velez Malaga and head north on the A 335 to Trapiche. From here continue in the same direction on the C 335 via Los Vados until the MA 125 goes up on the right to Canillas del Aceituno, at the traffic circle before the village turn right towards Sedella. About 2.5 km after the next traffic circle (south-east of Canillas) you come to a picnic area ('La Rahige') with a large sign ('Sierra Almijara'). Park your car here. About 100 m further on, the road would cross "our" stream.

Approach: (machine translated)
We climb up to the picnic area, there on a staircase, later on an indistinct path upwards. After almost 30 minutes we come to a small house ('caseta'). Passing it on the left through the gulch, you come to a water pipe, which you follow high above the Almanchares until you reach the stream. At one point the base of the water pipe has slipped. A detour above the pipeline is indicated here.

Tour: (machine translated)
Also water-bearing in midsummer, suitable for beginners and children.

Return: (machine translated)
After the water catchment, turn right and walk through the picnic area to the car.
