Summary: (machine translated)
Canyon very dressed, with many areas in which we will have to leave the riverbed to move forward, rappels in natural and possibility of combining directly with Esquitlla, or continue to make the full descent.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Throughout most of the route

Access: (machine translated)
From Berga towards Sant Llorenç de Morunys on the BV-4241/LV-4241 at km. 11.6 the detour to the left to Capolat.
We will pass by different farmhouses until we reach Taravil, we leave it to one side and soon we will find a detour to the right to Vilella. We continue on the left and park after 20-30m on the left in a secluded area. We will see the GR exit on the right.

Approach: (machine translated)
Accesses Ca l'Esquitlla and Cal Catriques
We leave by the GR, after 200m the track continues and the GR goes to the right. A little further on (another 200m) there is another track on the right, the GR continues straight on, we leave the GR and go to the right to the riverbed.

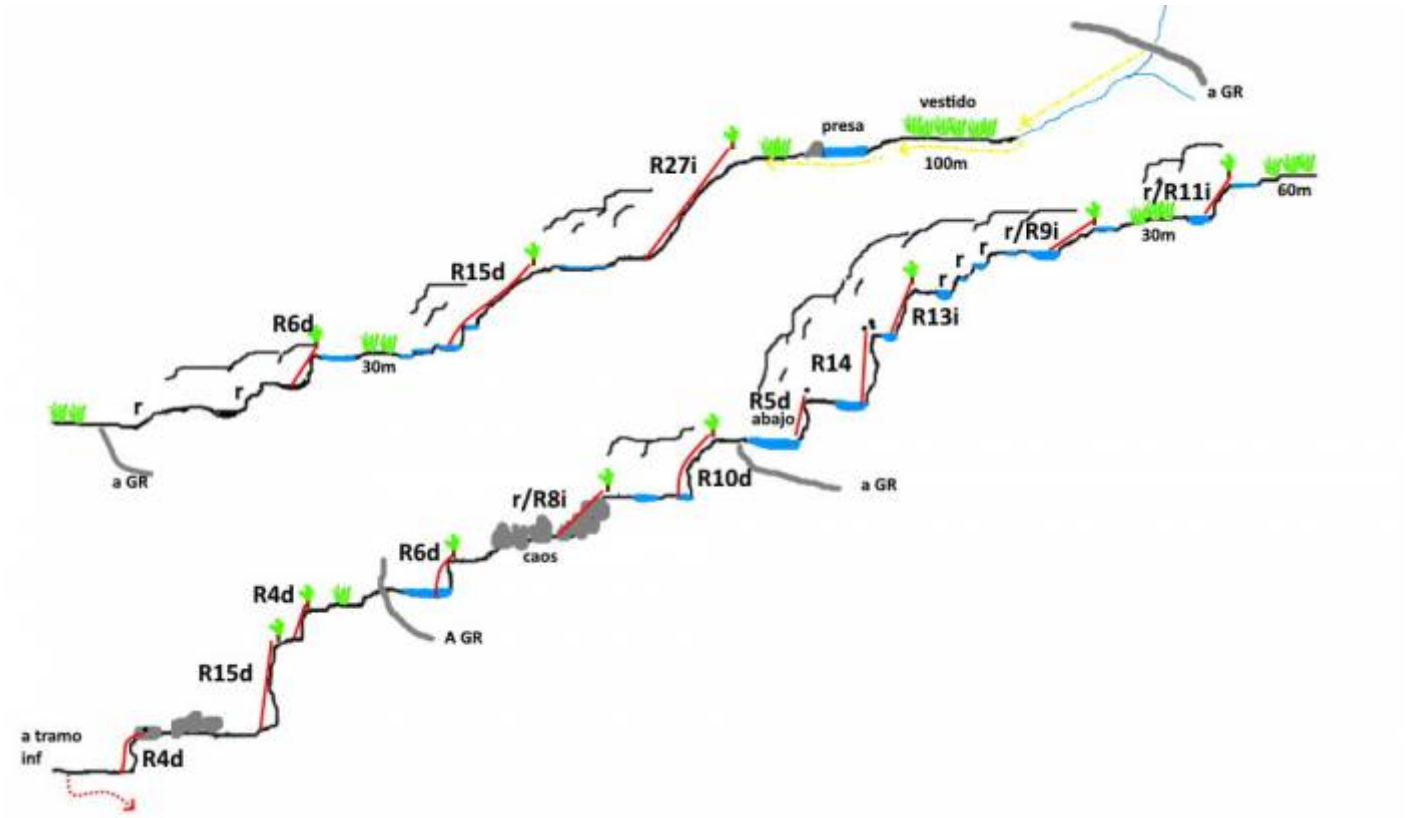

Tour: (machine translated)
The first part of the descent is very well dressed, we will go to the left to avoid all this area until we pass the dam. From here some equipped ramps give start to the descent itself, in which we will have several areas to avoid

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we will find a large block and a path that leads us to the left to the GR. We will only have to go up to the car.
