Summary: (machine translated)
Collector canyon with only 4 rappels, if it has good flow the third one is wonderful. If it has a lot of flow the third one is a problem.
Info from Alexis: IT IS ESSENTIAL TO BE VERY DISCRETOUS AND RESPECTFUL BOTH IN AND OUT OF THE CANYON, WE KNOW THAT THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO BELIEVE THAT THE RIVERS ARE THEIRS, BUT ALSO THE SAME PEOPLE OWN THE LAND ADJACENT TO THE RIVERS...

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Difficult but not impossible.

Access: (machine translated)
From Busquistar we head towards Trevélez and just before kilometer point 31 in a sharp right turn we find the riverbed and the sign.

Approach: (machine translated)
Location bcos los Castaños, los Alisos and la Bina
If we park on the bridge we will be in the riverbed, but there is not a good place where even two cars can fit.
If we park where we will leave at the exit of a farmhouse 800 meters before we will walk 10 minutes along the road.

Tour: (machine translated)
Progression along the river through the undergrowth rappels in natural and fun skills until you reach the rappel 3 and 4 that are followed and give way to a reed bed and the end of the canyon.
To side and side of the river there are private farms where they do not seem to appreciate the canyoning and the meetings are sabotaged, obligatory cords of abandonment, short and long and mallones to undertake the descent without problems.

Return: (machine translated)
On the orographic right we will see a narrow lane that belongs to a private property, we will try to be discreet and not to disturb at all.
