Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
The most vertical ravine in the Rumbau area, with no water except for rainfall. It is a narrow crack that gets us into a beautiful dark area. We can continue descending to Rumbau or leave by the path to the left.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Halfway along the Coll de Mur trail

Access: (machine translated)
Access to Bcos Rumbau
We will go up the C14 towards Seu de Urgel/Andorra. After passing Oliana we will have a detour to the left to Peramola. In the pk 3 of this road we have the detour to the left to Tragó and to the right to the Hotel Can Boix, we go towards the hotel and next to it there is an esplanade where to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Bco Rumbay, Roca del Corb and Sant Honorat
We pass the complex on the right and after passing the swimming pool we will leave the path of the corb rock to the left and go to the Font Viva, there we will turn right towards the Collada de Sant Honorat (well indicated) up there we will follow the track/path to the left to the remains of the Ermita de Sant Honorat.

Tour: (machine translated)
We will start with some spectacular rappels under the entrance arch (this part is also known as barranc del triple arc), there are about 40m of rappel, this first part is very vertical until we reach the path of the coll de Mur where the Bco Sant Honorat itself begins in a winding crevasse that we will install from a bush.

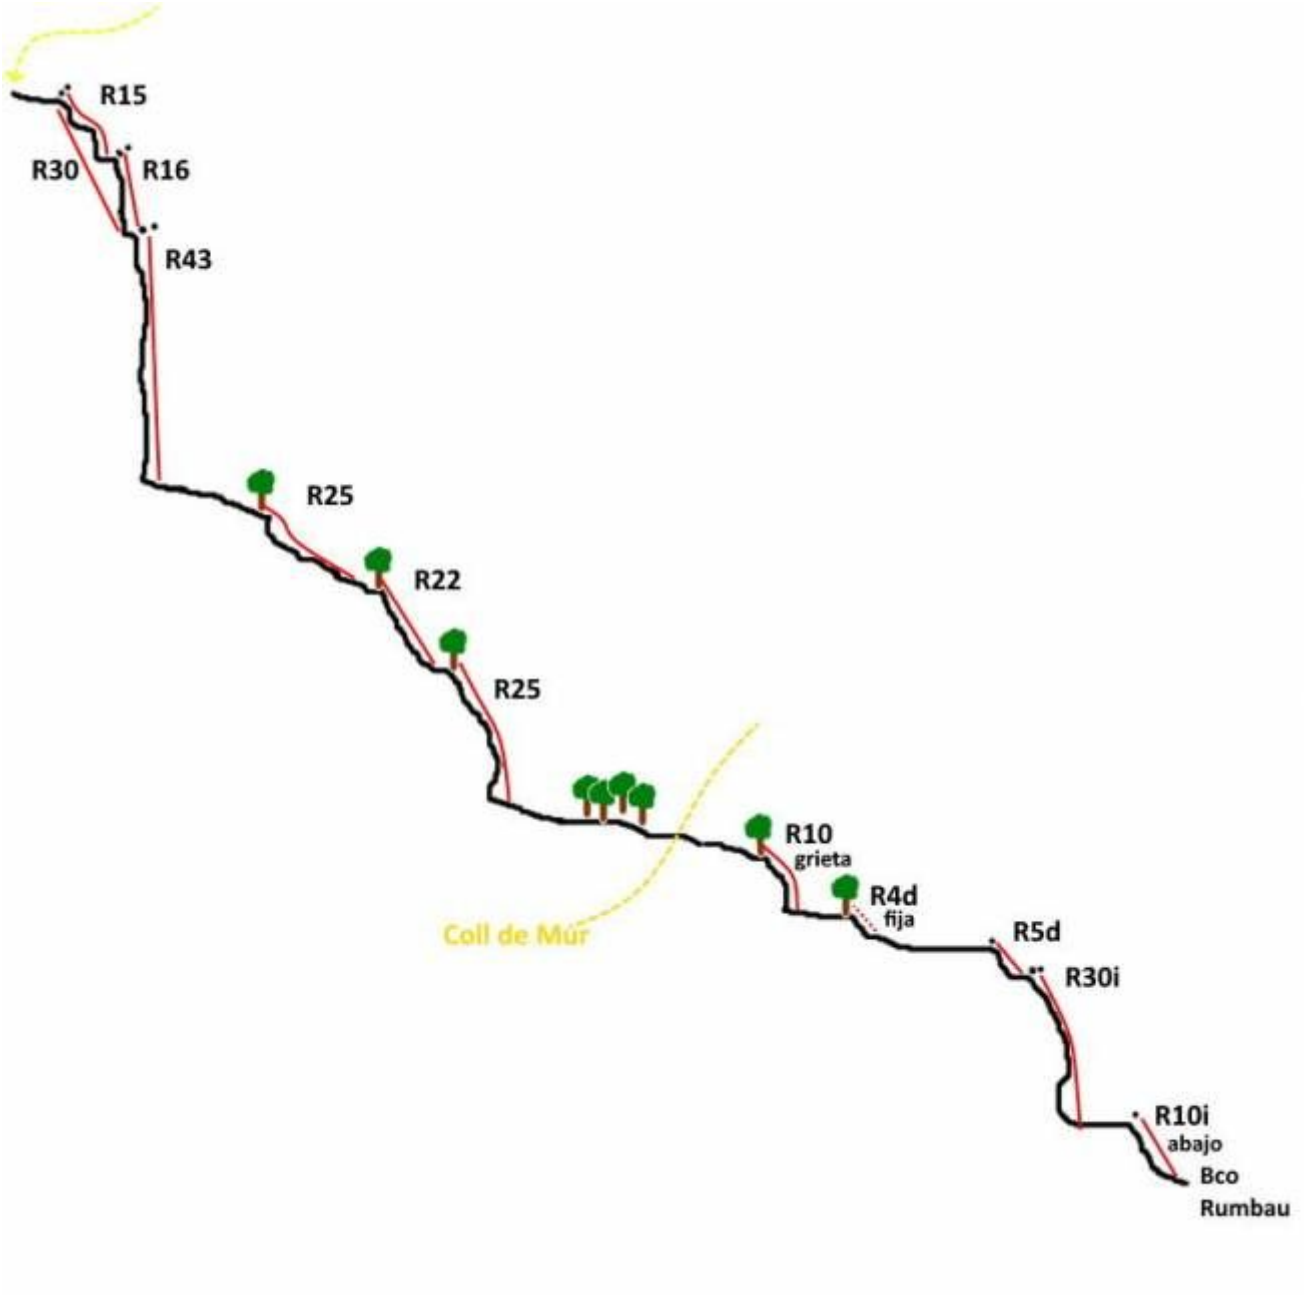

Return: (machine translated)
Along the Coll de Mur trail or along the Rumbau gully

Coordinates:
Canyon Start 42.0705 1.2762
