Summary: (machine translated)
Vertical canyon and very interesting to combine with Unhòla.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
To the left to the access path

Access: (machine translated)
There are several ways to get to Salardú.
From the Val d'Aran by the N230, or from France by the N125 to Vielha and go up to the Bonaigua.
From the Sort side crossing the Port de la Bonaigua.
Once in Salardú turn towards Bagergue. We will arrive at this beautiful village, cross it and continue along the track next to the river Unhola, cross it and park near the Borda de Peró or Lana the return car.
If we have an access car we will continue along the track until almost the Moredo cabin at 1800m. We parked

Approach: (machine translated)
With an access car we only have to go down to the creek.
With a single car we can go up the track or along a path on the left orographic bank to the access.

Tour: (machine translated)
Relatively open with breakouts to the left to the access path.

Return: (machine translated)
We arrived at the Borda

Coordinates:
