Summary: (machine translated)
Parallel ravine to Ortiz, almost a collector's item, it can be used to combine with Ortiz because the same parking lot is good for us. Simple and short.
To combine with immediate Ortiz or Nacimiento

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Although delicate

Access: (machine translated)
Access to Millares
We will have to get to Millares by the CV580 towards Bicorp. We will pass the pk51 and the bridge over a stream. After the right curve there is a road that goes down perpendicular to the left, we take it and go straight ahead until the end without turning off, it becomes a track and we park at the end.

Approaches Ortiz and Fuente Trinidad
We will leave towards the visible cut of Ortiz and Trinidad, the first one we will find is ours.

After the final ramp/rapel we will exit to the left to soon reach a track, we can continue along it to the car or shorten. It is evident
