Summary: (machine translated)
An adventure for the most demanding, long and hard canyon, we may go for more than a day (to take into account). Long rappels and adventurous terrain in a canyon in which we must make sure to bring everything we need (ropes, spare equipment, food, drink, ...) and that the weather will be with us.
Since it is located in a protected area, it is necessary to verify if a permit is required.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Not in a large part of the ravine

Access: (machine translated)
Bcos Arafo area
In Arafo, we will take the TF523, road of the Teide.
With the return vehicle we must be located in Eduardo Curbelo Street in Arafo, at the end of the street comes out the road to the Canal Alta, soon we can park.
With the access vehicle we return to the road to take the TF24 and go almost towards Izaña passing by the Mirador de Chimague and almost at the viewpoint of Ayosa, just at p.k. 27.9 there is room to park. 27,9 there is a place to park next to a small path.

Approach: (machine translated)
We will go up the hill along the path, once there we will continue almost in a straight line looking for the riverbed, the beginning of the basin that brings us closer to the head of the ravine.

Tour:
Ver topo

Return: (machine translated)
We will arrive at the Barranco de Añavingo path, a pilgrimage area, we will continue along the path/track to the parking area.
