By chance I went into the canyon upstream on the "hiking trail" (from Sa Calobra) (better not to do it!) to test an alternative route to the Torrent de Pareis entry. Canyon well overgrown. Access path really a pain for people in shorts. Grass, thorn bushes and the like do the rest. Got to the 15-20 meter rappel, which looked quite nice from below. There were glued anchors or old rope remnants at the absell points I found. (machine translated)
