Hydrology: (machine translated)
Impossible in the vertical

Access: (machine translated)
We are located in Roquetes, next to Tortosa.
Following direction to the park of the Ports by the T342, after 3kms we turn left towards Mont Caro. Two kilometers after passing the canal we turn left. On this track we will go until we can not more (Corral de Colomet) and turn left and after 20m a detour to the right (Caramella road).
We can park at the end of the track at Casa Carvallo if there is room and if not a little further up in a parking lot on the right.

Approach: (machine translated)
Access to ravines in the area
Same approach as to Caramella, we follow the path that goes along the stream, crosses to the orographic right. Soon the path separates and we turn left, go up the ravine by the cliffs to the height of the Cua de Cavall and cross the stream. Here we have the lower access to Gralla, we continue a little further and at the junction we leave the path of Caramella on the right, we go left and cross the stream of Gralla. At this point we cross the other path that goes up to here, much harder but shorter.
We will continue climbing leaving a trail junction to go to the left, we will pass to the next riverbed under the Mola Castellona, we will follow the trail to the riverbed of the stream.

Tour: (machine translated)
Quite open, a first rappel will bring us closer to the vertical where we will find an access rappel to the R70 divided into two R35. Then a series of rappels until we reach the final ramp at about 400m altitude. We will leave to the left to take the access path.

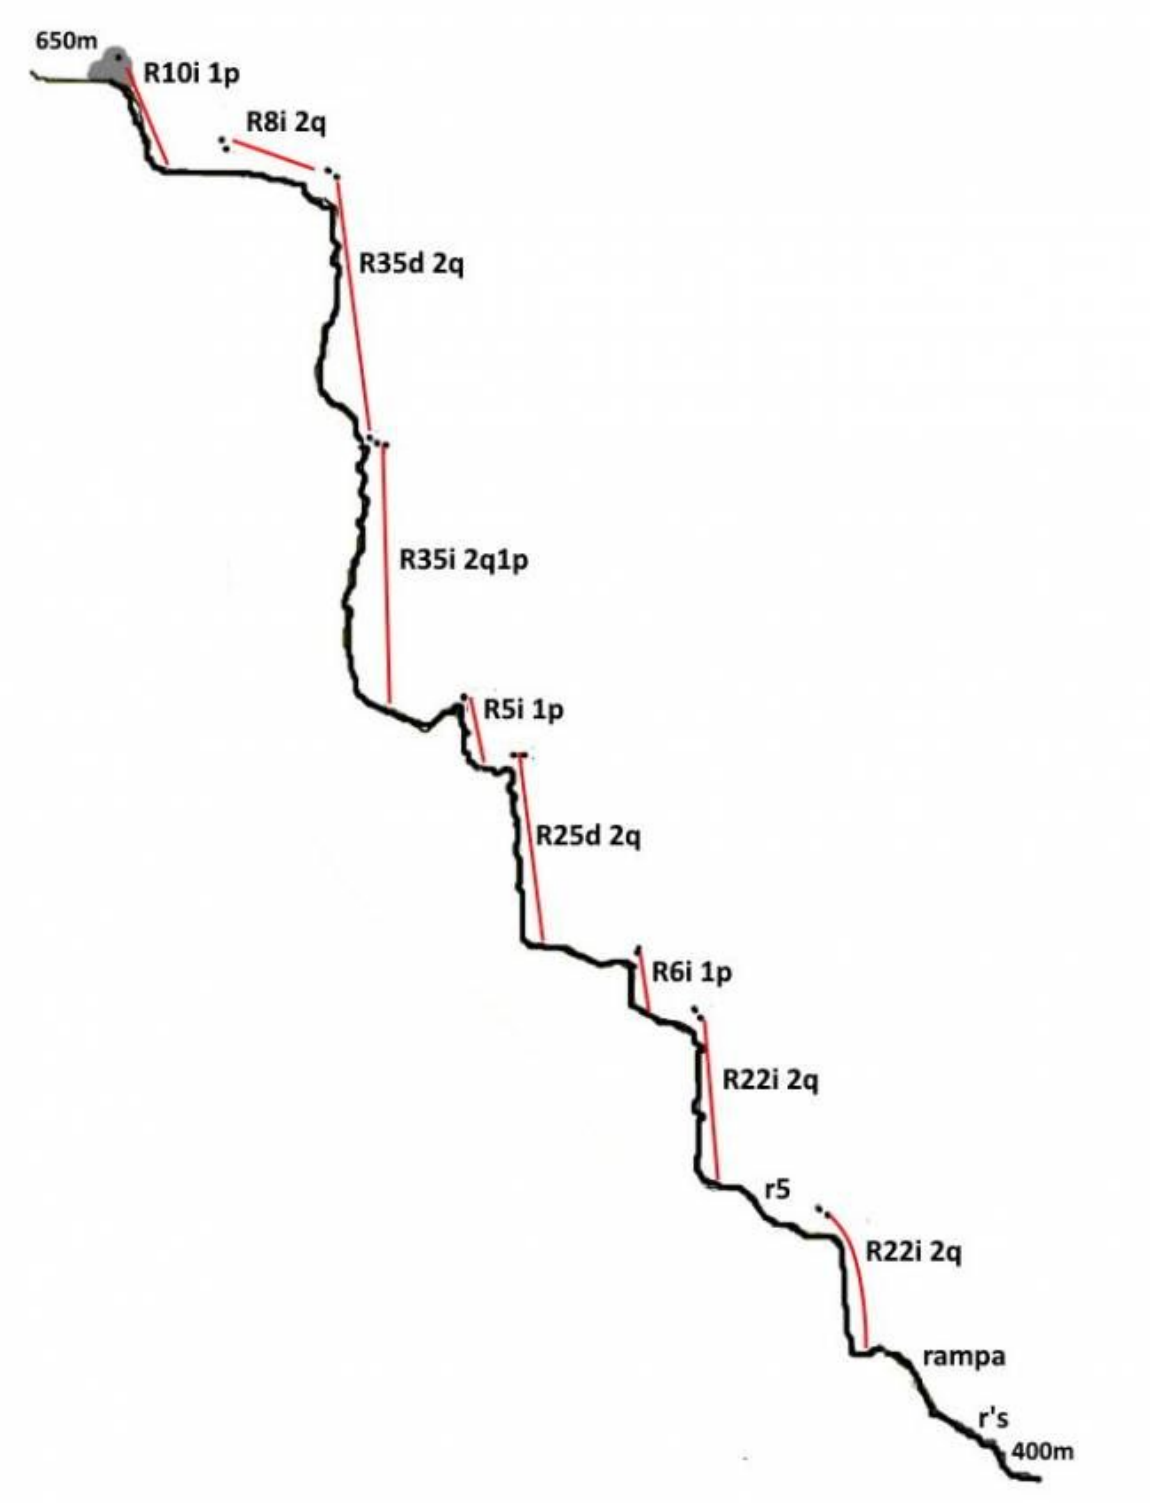

Return: (machine translated)
Along the access path
