Summary: (machine translated) Dry canyon
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) From Corinth, drive to Pisia and turn off at the church of Agios Nektarios onto a paved road, which soon becomes a dirt track. At a clearing, you can see the path from the exit on the left and park your vehicle.
Approach: (machine translated) Follow the slope for about 20 minutes, after which you will recognize a streambed on the left and take the first path downhill.
Tour: (machine translated) The canyon then begins completely unexpectedly, which starts beautifully incised and remains so until the exit.
Return: (machine translated) After the last rappel, follow the path on the left back to the vehicle in a few minutes.
Coordinates: Parking Entry and Exit 38.0217 22.9987
