Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Descent almost for collectors, long access, short but intense descent. If we catch it with good flow we will enjoy it. The access to the top is hard for what it offers us.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Not simple

Access: (machine translated)
We reach Ribes de Freser on the N260, cross it and continue to Queralbs.
Before arriving, sharp bend to the left and road in front of the Daió power station. We park at the power station.

Approach: (machine translated)
By the path that goes up to the Coma de Vaca refuge. We will go up to cross the pont de les Marrades, shortly after we will take the detour to the left by the Freser channel. A kilometer after taking the channel we will arrive at our torrent. The lower part starts right there.
For the upper part we will have to go up the slopes for about 100m.

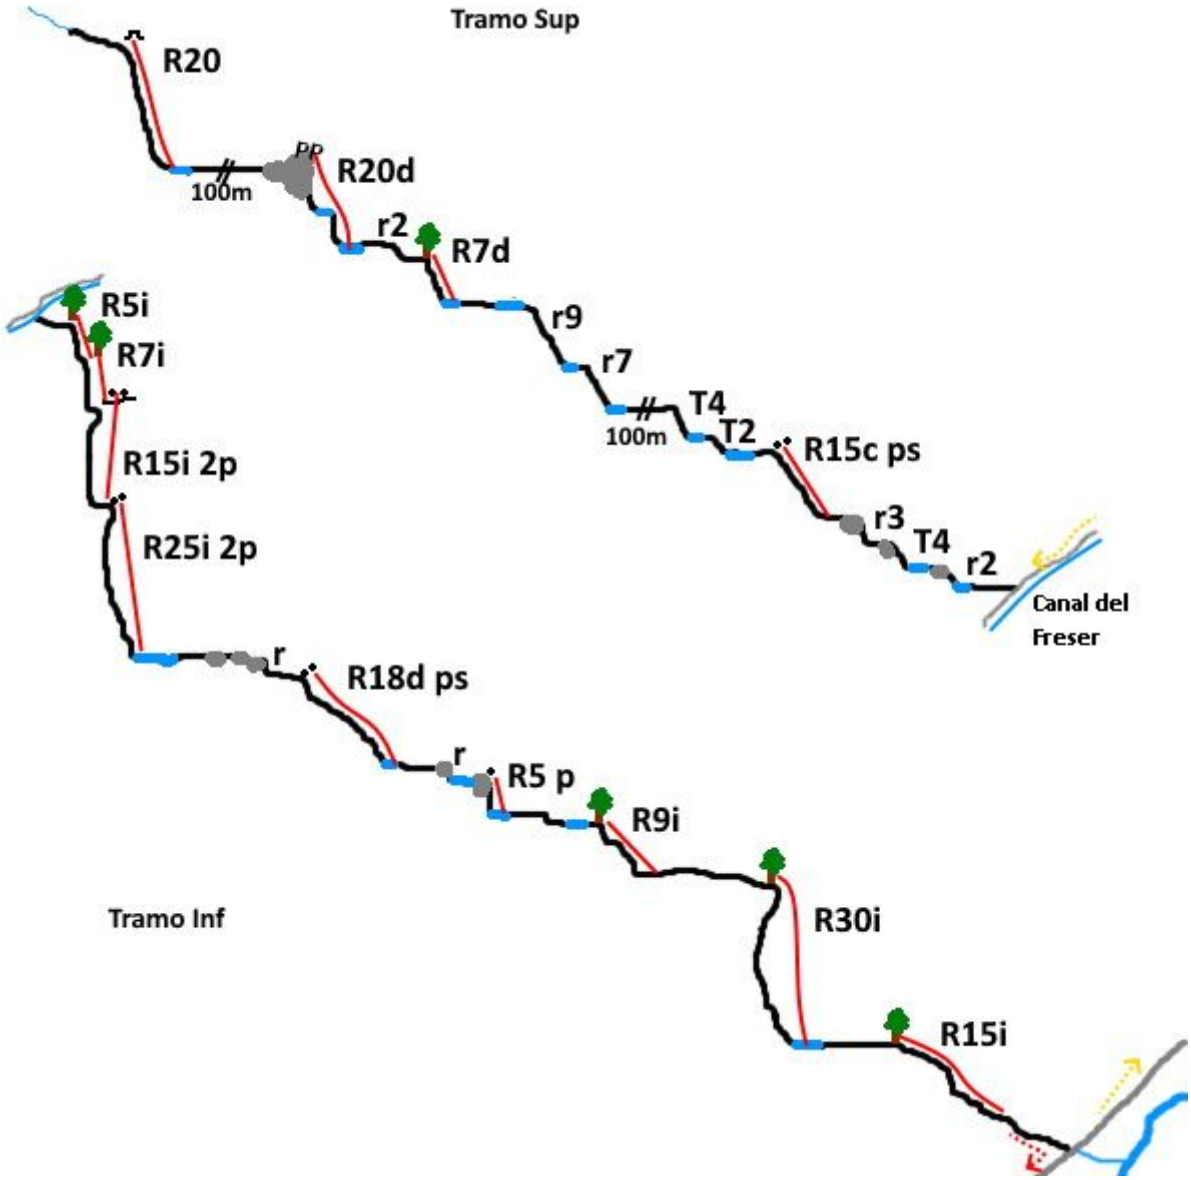

Tour: (machine translated)
The lower part starts with a very impressive vertical very well franked to continue with a few short rappels before reaching the R30 flown.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we arrive at the access path, we will walk back to the car.
