Summary: (machine translated)

A complete and very interesting activity, ascent by the ferrata K4 and descent by rappelling. Equipped to climb the Cresta del Sol by JOM Big Wall.

The passes of Pas de la Sonia and Pas de Ayuta have been sabotaged. Until they are not fixed DO NOT climb

Hydrology:

Sí

Access: (machine translated)

We will leave Sant Llorenç de Morunys on the C462 towards Solsona.

Passing the p.k. 19 we have a right turn, just at the exit of the tunnel, has an esplanade on the left, an area where climbers park.

Approach: (machine translated)

Next to the esplanade there is a forest track that goes up the stream, in a clearing in the forest at 400m we take the track to the left that goes to the ruins of Valielles.

Arriving at the ruins, about 300m, turn right to continue climbing now already on a path, it goes to the walls and soon after, 400m from the ruins, we have a milestone and a path to the staples of ascent.

We have a first section of path equipped with flanking that leaves the last rappel of the descent, then the path enters the wall for the steps of Ayuta and Sonia (currently sabotaged), with the 5th rappel to one side. We come out to a softer area that takes us to the col of the ridge and from there to the summit.

Tour: (machine translated)

4 rappels from the top, we descend the soft section and reach the 5th rappel next to the ferrata. A little more and we reach the last rappel

Return: (machine translated)
