Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Buanga (both toponymies have the river), it is a simple, short and very interesting ravine for the aesthetics of its waterfalls. Access and returns without complications. To keep in mind that almost all the rappels are natural.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Almost all the way to the left

Access: (machine translated)
From Oviedo on the A63, exit 9 to Trubia (N634). Upon entering Trubia take the AS228 towards Proaza, where we will go 5 kms to San Andrés.
At the entrance we will see the detour to the right to Castañedo, right next to the bridge there is room to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
We will return a few meters along the road to take the path that says "Cascadas". After passing the Peña el Castiello, the trail will approach the creek to cross it, time to access the trail.

Tour: (machine translated)
Simple and entertaining, we will have to install the rappels in trees, except for two that have installation.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we turn left onto the path that leads to the village.

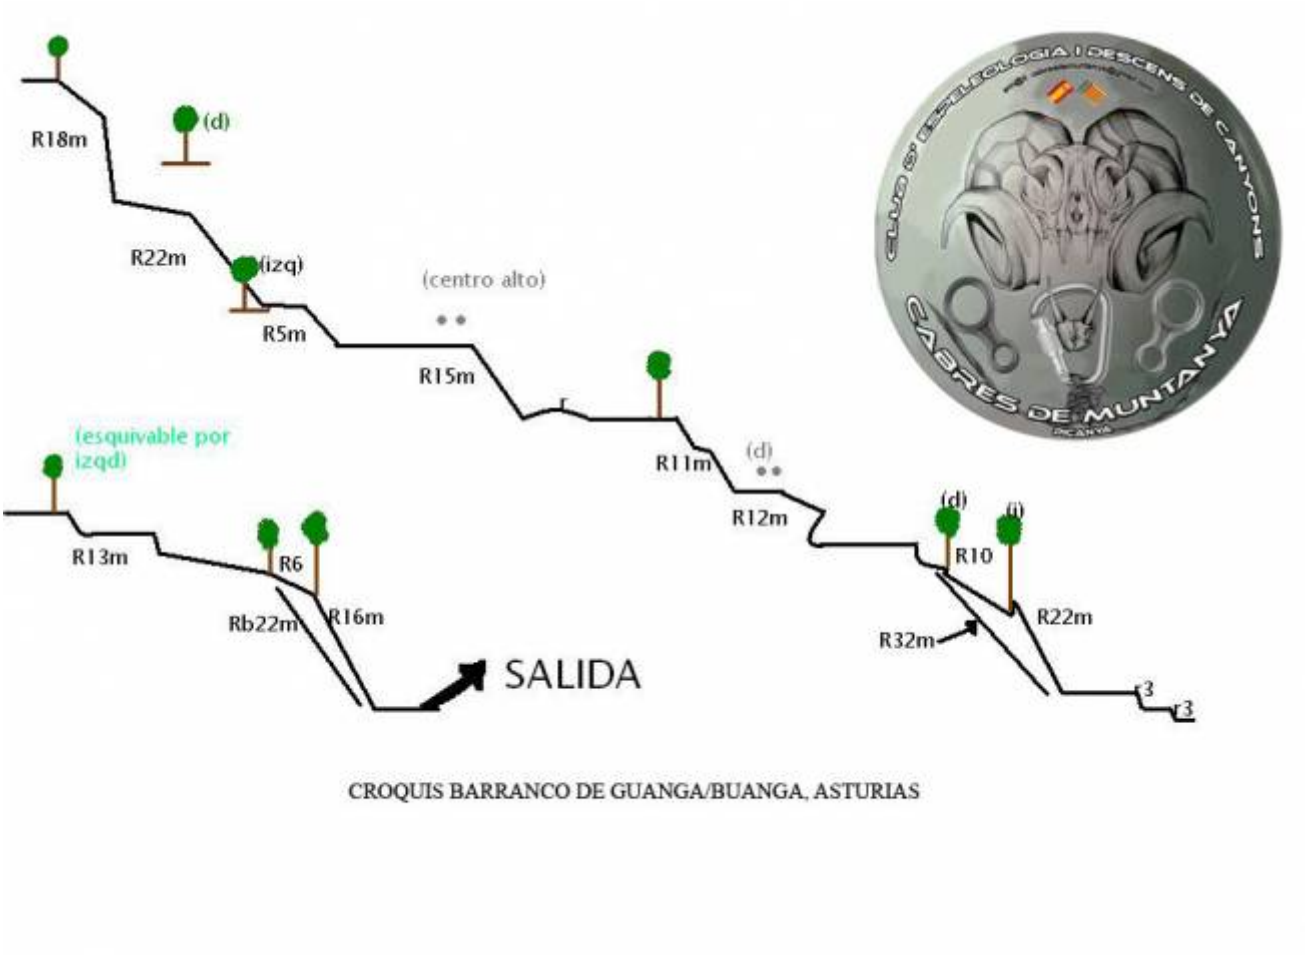

Coordinates:
Canyon Start 43.3097 -5.9975
