Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Simple descent that we present here in its two options, the integral or the short one from the Cova del Cabrit to make the narrowest and most interesting part.
Regulated Descent: https://muntanyamontserrat.gencat.cat/ca/el_parc/canals-i-recorreguts-equipats/

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Possible on part of the route

Access: (machine translated)
On the A2 we will take the El Bruc detour.
Several options:
Vinyanova: We will go along the N-2 until the second exit of collbató (575). Then follow the side road until you reach the "bruc residencial", where you go up the first street (can Marques), until you reach a track on the right hand side towards "Rest. vinya nova". Once we arrive at the restaurant we will follow the track to the left until we reach the farmhouse of can Jorba, where we will park.
Can Pasqual: Cross the village up to the schools and turn right looking for the Refugi Vincenç Barré. We will follow this road that will become a track to the parking lot used by climbers.

Approach: (machine translated)
If we are going to do only the lower part it is better to park by Can Pasqual. We will leave the access track straight ahead until the fork, straight ahead Caragols, we will go to the right (return of Cargols), along the Camí de la Cova de l'Arcada. We will pass by the Roca del Tambor and from there to the Font d'es Xebre and the Cova del Cabrit, after passing it we will arrive at Boixar.
If we leave Vinyanova, we go along the track on the left, straight ahead. After 300 m we go to the right on a path. The path will cross another, but we go straight on. At the next crossroads we go right uphill along the Camí dels Francesos towards the Coll de Mosset. If we go to the right we will go Joc de l'Oca (or Migdia), to the left the cami del Cabrit towards the lower part and we will continue straight ahead for the upper part. We will follow the path to the Roca Plana del Llamps, time to go down to the torrent.

Tour:

Return: (machine translated)
After the cova, enabled by the climbers, we will take the path
