Tour: (machine translated)
One of the best descents in the area.
It carries water all year round.
After rains we will be able to find it well loaded, but it does not represent any problem,
since it does not have deep badinas.
We will only have to fight against the force of the water in the cascades.
It starts as a small stream that enters the forest. We will go down; if we
if we want we can do it by a track that goes down parallel to the left until we find the first ledges. After a first rappel of 5 meters, the gully begins to form. Two more rappels and
and a zone of ledges followed by several ramps until we find the
the tributary of Can Pelegrí. Here the chained rappels the chained rappels and the most interesting area of the canyon.
the most interesting area of the canyon.

Gorgs:After the great chaos, 200 meters along the bed of the ravine 200 meters along the bed of the ravine and we will arrive at the river Aigua de Valls;
we only have to cross it and go up 50 meters to the track
track where we have the starting car.
Take the path (Ruta del Pont Cabradis) that descends parallel to the river. Until you find the P1
