Summary: (machine translated)
Rappel canyon with an open character.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Widi on Lake Sarnen, follow the signpost to the center of Switzerland. At altitude 1578, in a left-hand bend just after the exit of the forest, an unpaved path turns off to the right. There is space to park here. You can also see the stream from here.

Approach:

Tour: (machine translated)
From the normal start, you quickly reach an approx. 200 m high ramp. Then a few downclimbs and another ramp, followed by an 80 m high waterfall. The exit of the tour is then quickly reached and you return to the asphalt road via the forest road on the right.
Ice climbers probably use the anchors here more often!

Return: (machine translated)
Follow the forest road to the right up to 1138 m. From there, follow the ropes upwards until you reach the access road again at 1399 m.
