Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Short and simple canyon but very aesthetic, a pity that it is not longer. Perfect to take a dip and complete a day because it will not take us more than an hour. Caution with storms!

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Not necessary but can be done on the third rappel.

Access: (machine translated)
On the A1605 between the N260 and Graus or Benabarre.
On the N260 between Castejon de Sos and Pont de Suert. At pk 356,5 next to Montanuy, we have the detour on the A1605 to Bonansa and Roda de Isábena.
Or from Graus or Benabarre towards Isábena.
At pk 27 is La Pobla de la Roda and here we have the detour to Carrasquero and Esdolomada. We take this road, pass the Carrasquero detour and when we reach the bridge over the river we park to one side.

Approach: (machine translated)
We go up the road the two linked curves and at the top, from where we see the small cut at our feet, we can see the poplar grove and a path to go down to the stream.

Tour: (machine translated)
Small strait with 3 rappels. In summer it can get dry but in rainy weather it is a beautiful descent. It only lacks length and entity.

Return: (machine translated)
At the end of the ravine we go out to the road.

Coordinates:
