Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Beautiful and unknown canyon with a very demanding upper part. 13 rappels to the trail or 14 to the cinca for a very interesting day.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Quite a few trails cross it and it is quite open.

Access: (machine translated)
We are located in Ainsa (N260), we will take the A138 towards France through the Bielsa tunnel. After a few kilometers we will pass through Labuerda and at pk57 we arrive at Escalona. We will continue towards France until Lafortunada where we will turn right to Badaín, where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
By the GR15 towards Saravillo, we will have to cross the pipe and a while later we will arrive at the second access to the ravine. If we want to start from the source, a few meters before we have a small path that goes up the slope almost 100m of slope.

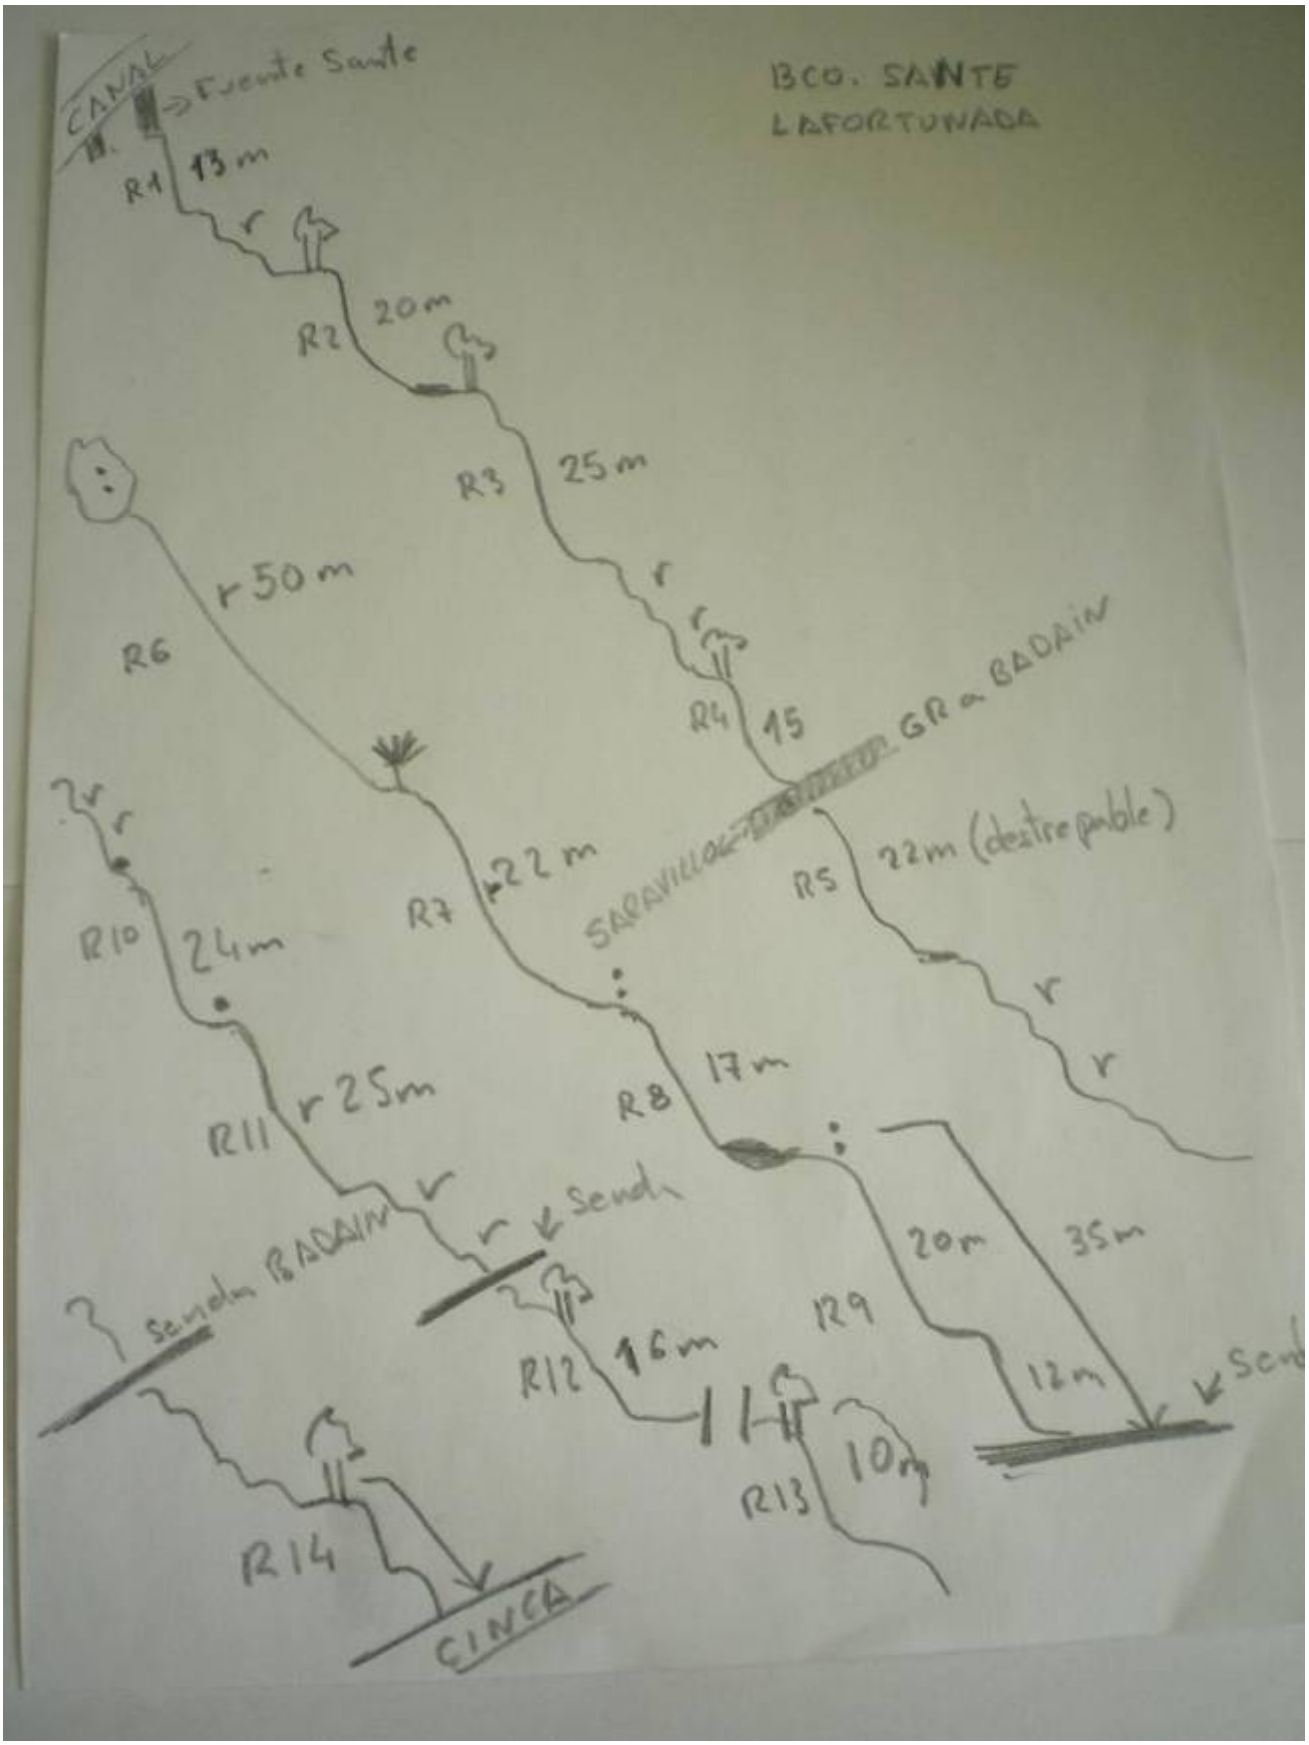

Tour: (machine translated)
Interesting descent in late spring or early summer, then it can dry out or remain with a thread. A descent full of abseilings and skills without rest to finish in the Cinca river.

Return: (machine translated)
If we do the last rappel we will come out to the Cinca (be careful with the flow), we cross it and by the road we go to Lafortunada. If not before this rappel there is a path to the left that leads to Badaín.
