Several... it is an open gully, although there is a lot of vegetation outside the gully.

Take the road from Onda to Espadilla, the same road crosses the Turio ravine, park in a lay-by next to the road.

Approach: (machine translated)
There is no coverage in the parking lot or during the ravine.
The parking is just at the end of the ravine, when it passes under the road.
From the parking we continue along the road towards Espadilla, we will pass by an abandoned building that says "Yesera" and then we will see a path on the left with a sign that says "Fuente del Turio".
We take this path and in about 40 minutes we will be in the Fuente del Turio (beginning of the ravine). The path is good, you can't get lost.
