Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Barranco de Peñagalera, it is a very aerial canyon with a 110m rappel.

Hydrology:
– TODO –

Access: (machine translated)
Take the A-2412 towards Beceite. Cross the village and look for the track to Arnes, follow it until you reach the river Algars and turn right.
From Arnes by the track of Toll del Vidre. About 7km later we park

Approach: (machine translated)
We continue on foot along the track to the junction with chain and sign. We follow the red marks towards the peak Penyagalera, after a while it becomes a path, through the Vall de la Mulesa that leads to the top. From here, looking towards the valley where we parked we can intuit the barrando.

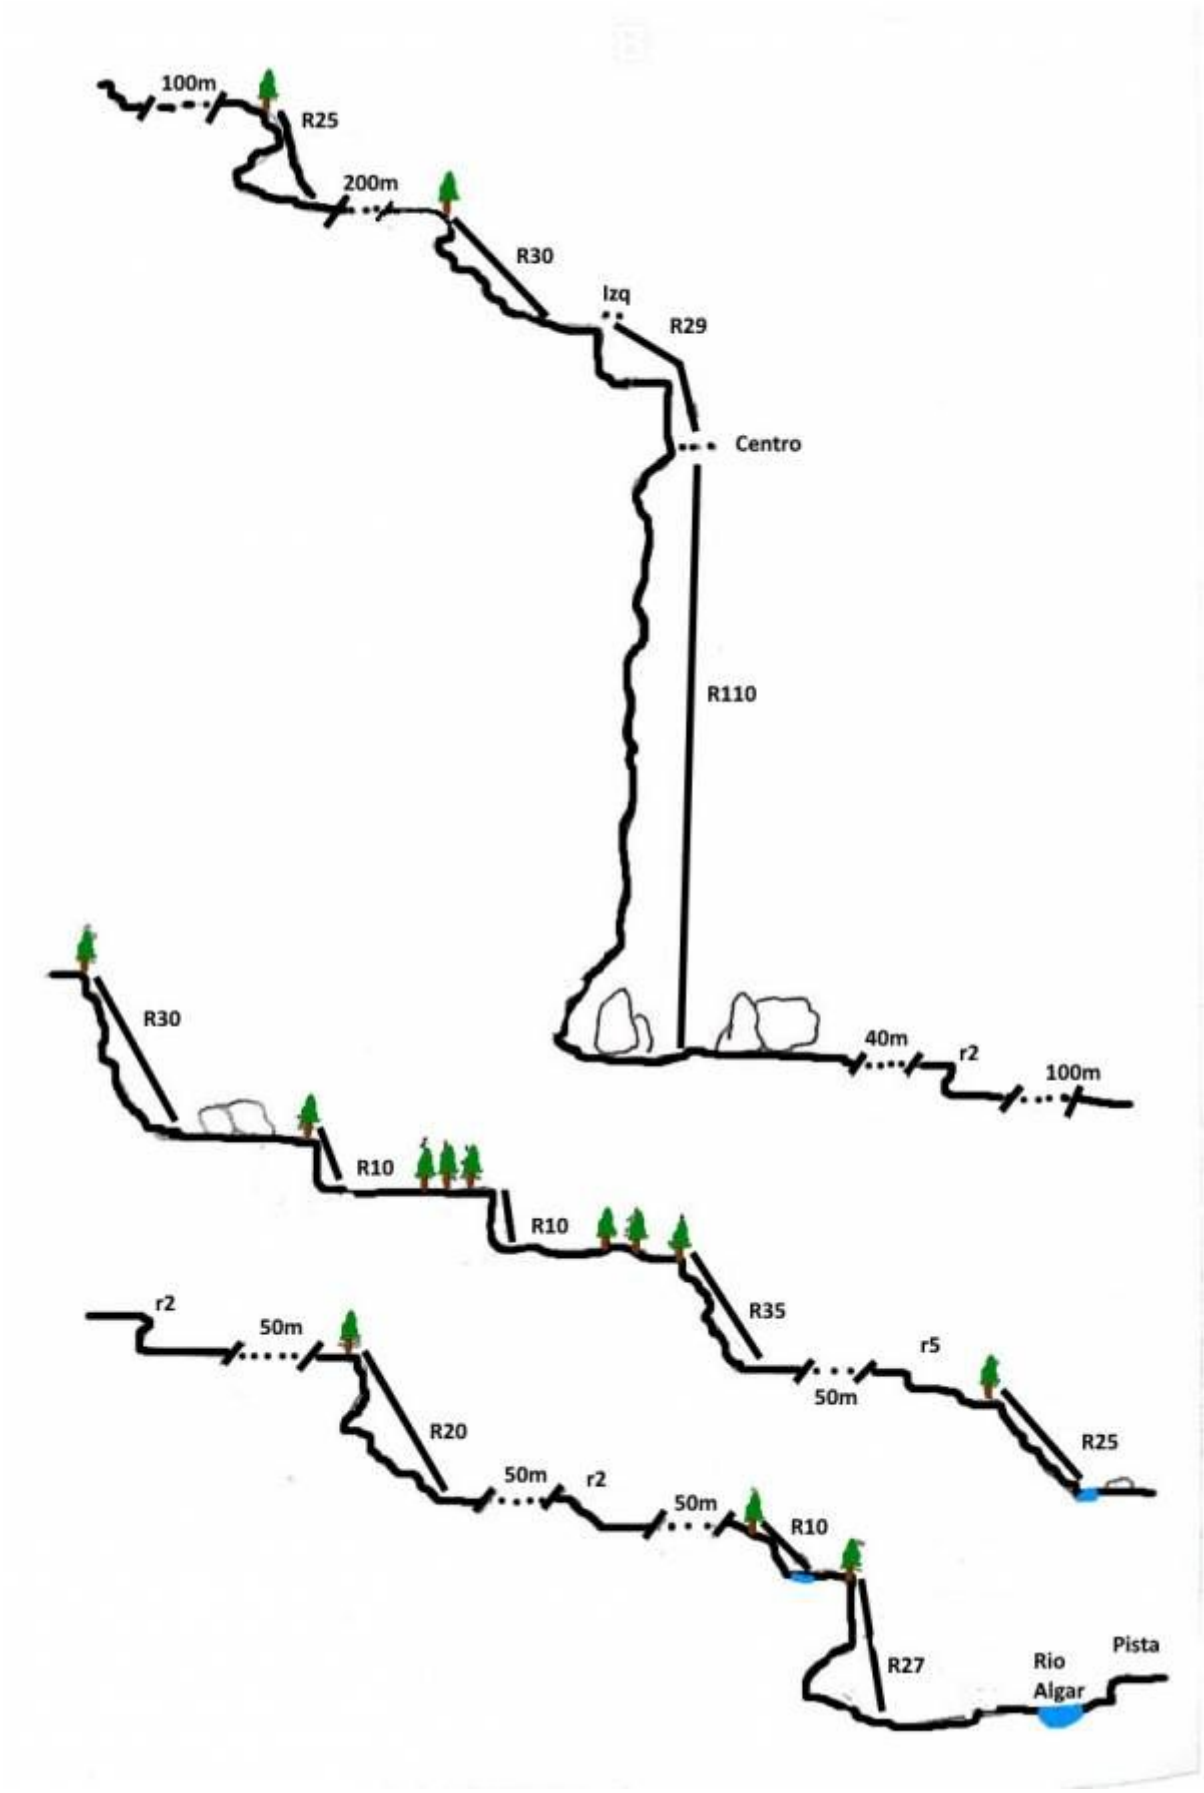

Tour: (machine translated)
Great descent with continuous rappels in which the 110m rappel stands out.

Return: (machine translated)
Crossing the river and arriving at the car track
