Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Canyon to combine with Serbis, without any notable difficulty. We will have to do it with water to be able at least to make some jump to the pools, without that it does not have great interest.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
In open areas

Access: (machine translated)
Access to Bot
We will have to be located between Bot and Prat del Comte.
Access to Bot
By the N430 near Gandesa and we will turn off to Bot by the TV3531. By the C12 if we go from Tortosa detour to Prat del Comte.
By the road that joins both towns, the TV3301, two kilometers after leaving Bot we cross the Canaletes river and we will have a track on the right, we get in here and park at the confluence of Bco Serbis and Trullet.

Approach: (machine translated)
Accesses to the Serbis and Buscarrons ravines
From the confluence, from the front, we will have a path that goes up along the division of the ravines. We will reach a sharp left turn with a milestone on the right, follow these milestones to cross two dry barracos (tributaries) after which we will go down to the beginning.

Tour: (machine translated)
Excavated areas, some narrow/dark areas not too big, kettles... if we take it with water, it has its own charm.

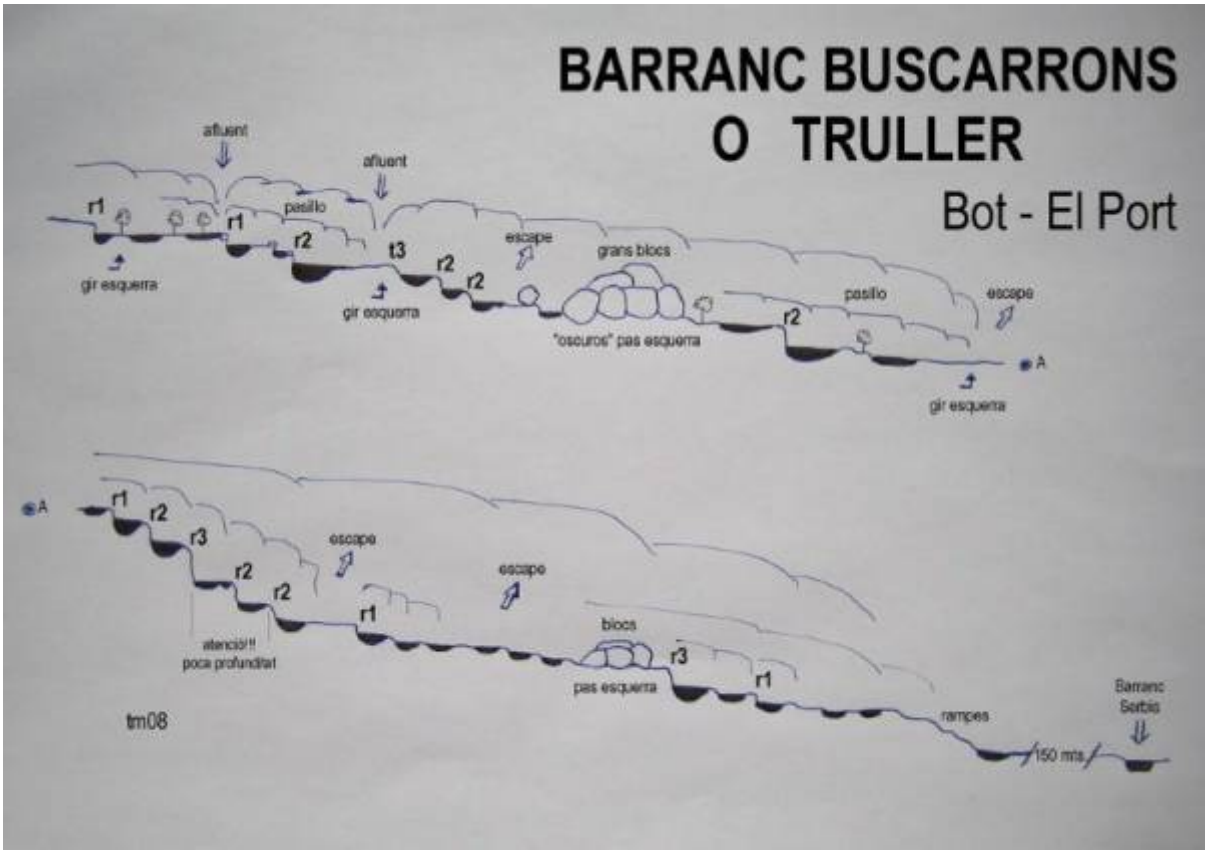

Return: (machine translated)
We will follow the riverbed to the exit

Coordinates:
Canyon Start 40.9879 0.3813
