Summary: (machine translated)
Beautiful initiation canyon next to the station of San Isidro on its south face. A magnificent setting of 2000m high mountains and green meadows to enjoy these small but intense straits, where we will find jumps, slides and a couple of small rappels. Immediate access and quick and comfortable return. Very used by companies in the area. Caution if it goes in load with spring flows and thaws.
When we finish the activity we can taste sausages and typical dishes in the village restaurant, 100% recommendable.
