Summary: (machine translated)
It is not really a ravine as such, but rather a walk along the Ebrón river and the Calicanto waterfall. Taking advantage of the walkways and stairs that have been installed in the narrows to walk the old road between Tormón and El Cuervo. It can be done with neoprene because of the water.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
- Not in the narrow areas. -

Access: (machine translated)
From Teruel, on the N-330 towards Cuenca and already within the Rincón de Ademuz, take the detour that leads to the town of El Cuervo. There take a track indicated as "Estrechos del Ebrón" which leads to a recreational area with its corresponding parking, which is about 2 km from the village. Here leave the second car. Follow the TE-68 towards Tormón. Park

Approach: (machine translated)
Leave the village and take the track to the left that leads to the Ebrón and the Calicanto waterfall.

Tour: (machine translated)
The complicated parts have walkways and stairs if we do not want to get wet. There are areas with a lot of undergrowth that can slow us down if no one has passed by for a long time.

Return: (machine translated)
You leave the parking lot 2 kms from El cuervo. If there is no combination of cars you have to undo all the way.
