Summary: (machine translated)
Dry ravine, boxed, with a very aesthetic area although in general it does not contribute much. When we reach the reservoir it opens up and we go out on the right to go up the slope.
To complete

Hydrology:
No

Access: (machine translated)
We must be located in Villa de Ves
We will follow the road that goes down to the Molinar reservoir, we will cross it through the tunnel and continue along this track. We will pass the old hostel of the Molinar and continue along the track making a few horseshoes until we reach the top. Here the track heads south, leaves a track on the left and leaves another on the right by which we will enter, parallel to the reservoir at the top. 1.5 km after taking this track, we cross the dry riverbed of our ravine, a place to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Immediately, we will follow the riverbed until it becomes boxed in.

Tour:
Encajonado

Return: (machine translated)
Upon reaching the reservoir, we will exit to the right to go up the slope parallel to the ravine.
