Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Nuoro on the highway in the direction of Olbia. After about 43 km we leave the highway through the exit Siniscola South. Access around parking of the car for the exit see in "photo gallery".\nImplementation see in "photo gallery".

Approach: (machine translated)
First descend on the left dirt road, always towards the large gulch. When the downward (goat) paths end, the descent begins (about 750m alt.). See in "Photo gallery

Tour: (machine translated)
Now we walk down the chute until sth at altitude 550m. Here begins the big vertical. First a smaller step (12m), then the 150m descent (28m, 45m/35m, 45m). After each walk and downclimb there is a 17m and 12m rappel. See in "Photo gallery

Return: (machine translated)
Only at about 155m altitude (GPS 40°32'48.72 "N / 9°39'20.71 "E ) you finally leave the streambed and keep going downhill exactly in southern direction, first passing under some trees. You pass a house and now go downhill along the dirt road, then along the dirt road to the car. See in "Photo Gallery"\nIf you miss the designated exit point, you can also get off a little later, then turn left, there in the descent also comes on a slope that leads down and - after a streambed crossing - on the other mentioned slope and so to the car.
