Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Nice dry ravine that falls on the Júcar, nice environment and possibility of bathing in the river. Better to avoid the hours of heat in summer
It is in the same zone that others to accede from Jalance reason why we will be able to combine them very easily.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Yes, in the middle of the ravine

Access: (machine translated)
Access Jalance area
We must be located in Jalance by the N330.
Access Bcos Jalance
Entering from the side of Requena by the old national road we will arrive inside the village at a sharp left turn where we have the detour to the right towards the Cueva de Don Juan and the Mirador de los Cañones del Júcar.
We will follow the signs to the Cueva de Don Juan as we leave the village.
Once out of the village we will reach a sharp right turn with a road ahead (Cueva de Don Juan).
We will go through some hairpin bends through which we will climb to the top. One kilometer later, through the crop fields, we will have a detour. To the right we will go to the Cave and the Mirador, parking lots of Alejo Gómez, Largo, Capellanes... and Useros. On the left 6kms we would go to the Moragete.
We will park at the Mirador del Júcar.

Approach: (machine translated)
Bcos (left to right) Carrasca, Useros, Robles, Capellanes, Largo, Alejo Gómez
From the viewpoint we go back along the road up to the sharp bend and access

Tour: (machine translated)
Nice and well equipped descent down to the Júcar river

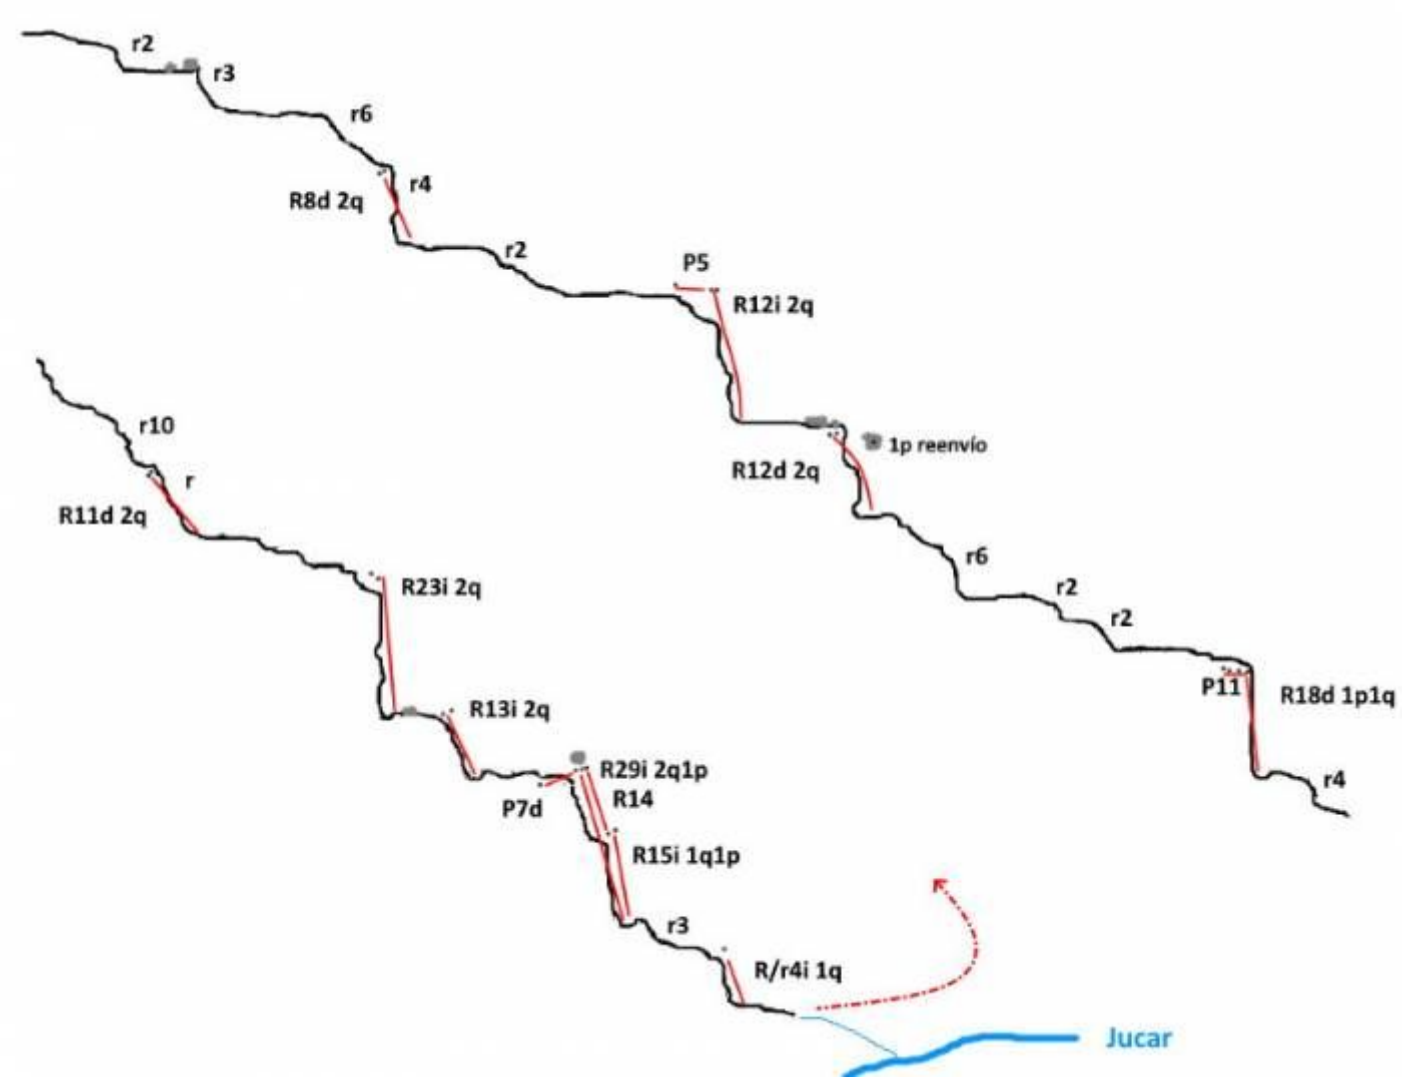

Return: (machine translated)
Before reaching the river, we turn left in search of the PR that takes us up to the viewpoint.
