Summary: (machine translated)
Limestone canyon in the Salar stream. Spectacular walls of more than 100m high and a canyon that, with water, will delight the most demanding with its handrails, zip lines, access to very slippery headwaters...

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Several along the length. See description and topo

Access: (machine translated)
On the A-92 (Granada-Malaga) exit 197 to Salar. We will take the A-4155, cross Salar towards Alhama de Granada.
2 cars: at km 14.5 there is a track on the right that goes down to the river to Cortijo Salcedo. Park before reaching it as it is a private estate (return car).
1 Car: we continue until km 16.5 and take the track that goes to the right. We park as soon as we can in the vicinity of the farmhouse Raolit (private estate).

Approach: (machine translated)
On the way to the farmhouse, we follow the path that comes out on the left side until it disappears and leaves us at the top of a watercourse, which we will descend along a marked path until we reach the riverbed, soon begins the descent.

Tour: (machine translated)
We start with a recoverable handrail, continue with a rappel zone to move on to the handrail with chain and 20m rappel.

Return: (machine translated)
We follow the riverbed until we find on the right the private road that leads to Cortijo Salcedo.
