Summary: (machine translated)
Magnificent descent in the Zalama cirque, open, long slopes and impressive verticals that will take us to the Vulacabra cirque. Beautiful grassy environment of the Kalera river.
Best in spring and autumn, with water only after rains, in summer it is generally dry.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
In the first part, these grassy slopes are somewhat dangerous, but later on they are even more exposed.

Access: (machine translated)
We arrive at Lanestosa on the N629, at pk 61.2 at a turn with some houses we have the detour to Calera del Prado. We continue to the village and continue to the neighborhood of El Prado. We park at the hermitage.
If we have two cars, we drive up the N629 to the Puerto de los Tornos.

Approach: (machine translated)
How to get to Zalama
From the Tornos peak we will go south towards the Cantón de la Muela peak and from there to the Canales peak. Before reaching its summit we turn left to the slope to go in search of the bed of a stream that will form our ravine.

Tour: (machine translated)
Open and vertiginous, incredible views of the valley that will accompany us on these long rappels, grassy slopes throughout the route and a couple of impressive verticals. The 60m rappel is worth the effort

Return: (machine translated)
We will continue along the Kalera river for a few meters until we see a milestone and a small path on the left (access to the Kalera bank), we will follow this path until we reach the Prado neighborhood.
