Summary: (machine translated)
Not to be confused with Ravine Blance further north.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Same access as to the Coloscopie.
From the bridge over the Mat river, take the D48 towards Plaine des Liane and pass the Cascade du Chien viewpoint.
Access is possible via the old GR long-distance path, the second path after the viewpoint, or drive to the terminus and take the GR long-distance path towards Bellouve.
Shuttle: Park your car at the "Pont de l'escalier" at the entrance to the Cirque de Salazie.

Approach: (machine translated)
Take the GR long-distance path towards Belouve, cross Bras des Lianes and Bras Piton and continue until you reach a tin hut (altitude 1044 m).
About 250 m after this, in a right-angled bend to the left, continue straight ahead on a path that quickly descends into a canyon.
Climb up this path for about a hundred meters and find the path again on the other side in a left-hand bend of the canyon. The
The path climbs steeply to the mountain pass between the Morne du Bras des Lianes and the Pic des Lianes (IGN point 1160 m). Descend to a small passage that you have to climb down. Continue through a small canyon with some rocky outcrops to Ravine Blanche.

Tour: (machine translated)
Many great lengths!
See the topographic view Ric à Ric

The equipment is very varied and ranges from rusty spitbolts to beautiful stainless steel bolts. It was largely renewed in 2024.

Return: (machine translated)
Take the hiking trail that crosses the Bras de Caverne upstream. On the other bank, follow the well-marked path to the "Pont de l'Escalier" parking lot.
