Summary: (machine translated)
Aquatic in nature, 30 rappels with no leaks and large flows in rainy seasons due to its large basin.

Hydrology:
No

Access: (machine translated)
Situating us in A Rúa at the p.k. 467.7 of the national road N120 in increasing direction, we have the detour to the right to Fontei, we will go up the asphalted track for about 2 kms until the vineyard area, before a right curve we have a path on the left between the forest. In this area we will park the return vehicle without disturbing.
With the access vehicle we return to the national road and continue in increasing direction (towards Quiroga) until the p.k. 469 where we have the detour to the Fire Station, we will take the OU933 towards the Fire Station and Roblido, soon we have the detour to the left to Roblido. We will go up to this small village, when we arrive we take the track on the right and continue climbing for about 2kms on a track leaving behind a hill with beautiful views (As Portiñas) until about 500m later where there is a firebreak where we can park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Take the path on the right for 200m until you reach a pit and a firebreak to go down to the river. You can access a few meters before atrochando.

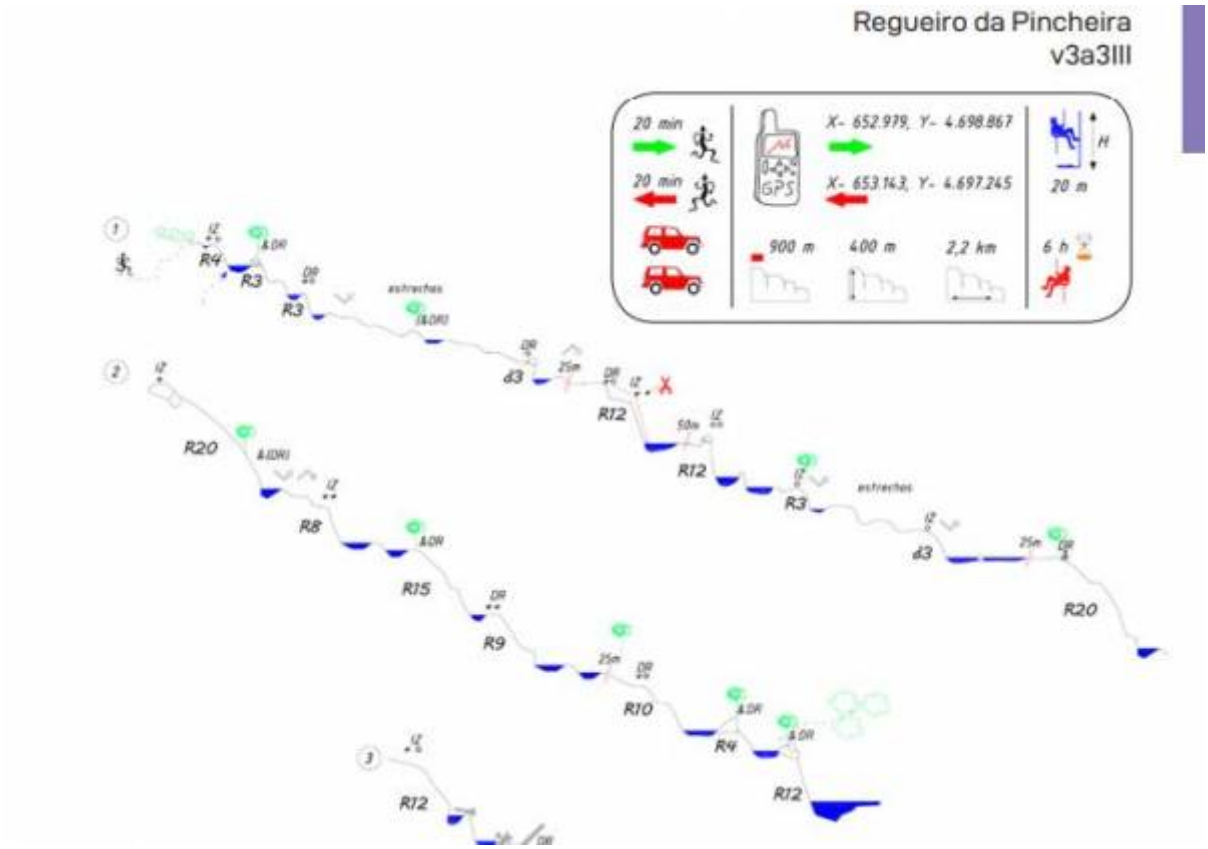

Tour:
Ver topo

Return: (machine translated)
After the last difficulties we will find the remains of a track on our left, we will go up to it and follow it to the return vehicle.
