We will be located in Chacín.
Chacín ravine
We approach until Chacín, once here we leave a car in the chapel of San Paio (end of the ravine) by the DC3404 and the other at the beginning. For this we go to the village of Gosolfre where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Accesses Bcos Gosolfre, Fontiñas and Bao da Casa
We continue through the village leaving behind an agricultural warehouse, soon we reach the river Gosolfre, we continue along it until we find a place to cross it and a small path on the other side that goes into the forest. Continue along this path for about 5 minutes until you reach the next stream where you will find the headwaters.

Tour: (machine translated)
Very vertical, in naturals, quite dirty with vegetation and dead trees. If we catch it with water it has a couple of delicate spots but it is worth it.

Return: (machine translated)
We will arrive at Bao da Casa, we will follow it until the confluence with Ribeirinos, from here by the path to the orographic right to go down to the chapel of San Paio.
