Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Short rappel canyon, which can also be climbed in longer variants

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Bastia, take the N198 towards Bonifacio (52 km). In Moriani-Plage turn right onto the D34 and up to San Nicolao (6 km). From here, continue along the slope on the D330 with great views until you cross the stream on a high bridge between 2 tunnels.After the second tunnel on the right good parking.

Approach: (machine translated)
About 50 m before the bridge (seen from the direction of San Nicolao) on a path up to the right, along water pipes, until you reach the stream above the 30m rappel.

Tour: (machine translated)
The mini descent described here can be seen in full length on the photo of the above first mentioned book - on p. 32. In the book of Quilici the whole tour (440 m altitude difference) is described, but in this form then probably something for collectors. In the pool under the first large waterfall possible jumps, if you can climb the rock wall orographic. left in the middle of the pool.

Return: (machine translated)
After the second (22 m) rappel directly after the road bridge left up to the road
