Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Mini Bras Orange, it is a nice but short descent, ideal to catch it with good flow, in low water it may not be worth it, depending on the flow. Avoid periods of heavy rains

Hydrology: (machine translated)
After the first two waterfalls, turn left to go up to the viewpoint.

Access: (machine translated)
By the A52 to Xinzo de Lima, now by the N525 to the center of town where we turn left onto the OU301, road that we will follow to the village of Forxa, where we will find the river Fírbeda.
In the center of Forxa, at the height of the town hall, we have the detour to the left towards the fervenza of Firbeda and the tower, we will pass by the hórreos heading south, we will leave the tower to one side and we will continue a little more along the road until a right curve where we can park.

Approach: (machine translated)
From the curve along the path to the viewpoint, and already from the viewpoint, a few meters up we can access the river.

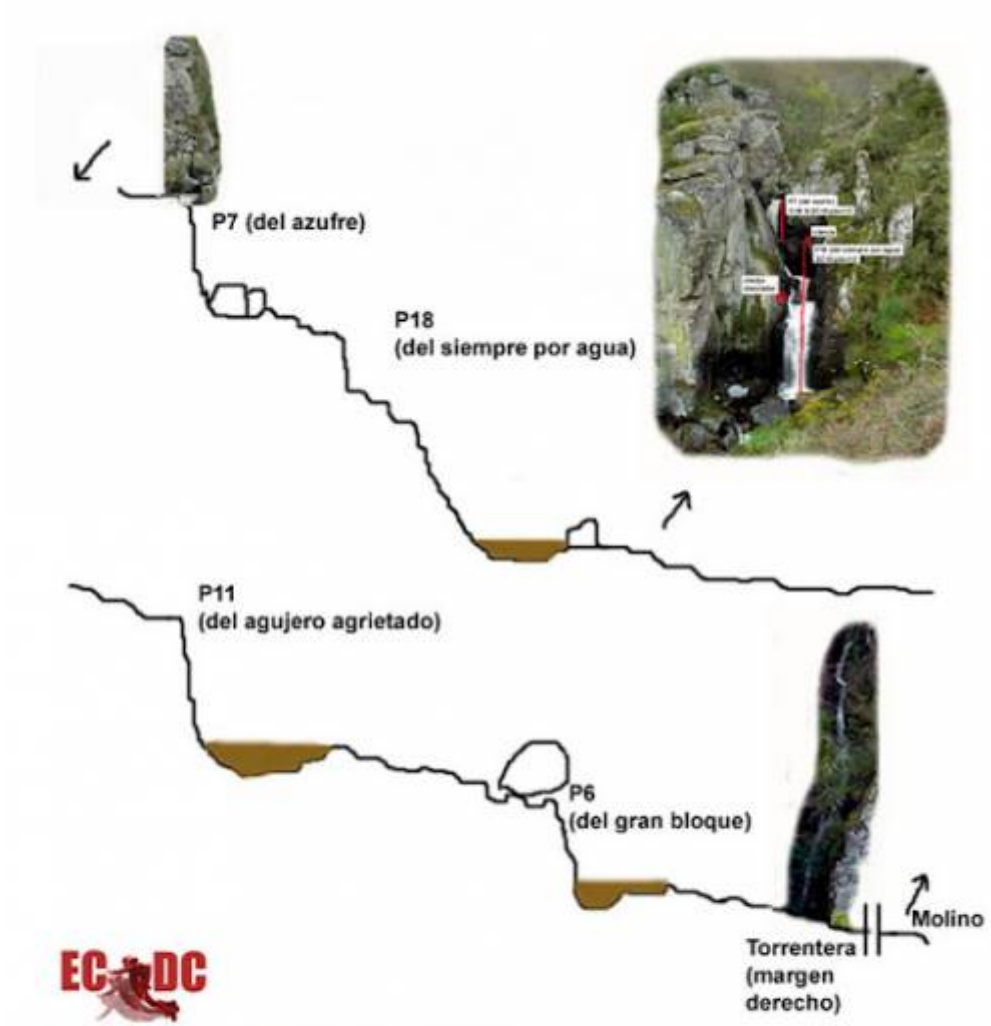

Tour: (machine translated)
Four rappels to descend, very aesthetic with good flow rate

Return: (machine translated)
After the last difficulty we will walk 100m along the river until we find a mill, behind it a path to the road.
