Access:
Approach: (machine translated) The stream has been climbed from the very top, but only becomes interesting from a height of 780m. So it's best to walk up the path west of the canyon and then look for tracks down the 40-50 degree slope.
Tour: (machine translated) In the superiore there are 2 parts with about 4 steps each. Smaller jumps are also possible.
Return: (machine translated) Superiore only makes sense if you also do the inferiore.
