Canyon carved in limestone, fairly simple except for its 33m rappel and quite boxed most of the descent.
It has a lot of vegetation which will make the progression difficult and a lot of mud.

Access: (machine translated)
From León we arrive at Cistierna, here we take the N621 towards Riaño.
After 2kms and a short distance we turn right to Ocejo de la Peña. Follow the road until just before the village.
Here a track on the left leaves us in the upper part of the village. We park.

Approach: (machine translated)
We left uphill from the cemetery on a track that climbs to Pico Moro. At the first curve to the left there is a path to the right (return) which can also be climbed through the meadows.
Following the track towards the Pico Moro we will pass the limestone walls and when the road is going to cross the stream we enter it.

Tour: (machine translated)
It begins among a lot of vegetation, soon narrows and the rappels begin. From here it will be a succession of them until the 33m. Here we can escape or do 4 more.

Return: (machine translated)
We leave to the left on a path that will cross the stream again. We continue and pass under two concrete turret bases. Soon we will arrive at the path where we started the day.
