Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Porto dos Bois, it is a canyon used by companies in the area. Open, fun, without great difficulties

Hydrology:
Sí

Access: (machine translated)
From Cercedo on the N541 to take the PO-2204 direction Chamadoira or by Meilide towards Cavadosa in both options, where we will park the return car or if we only have one.
With two vehicles we will follow Caroi to deviate to the Capela de Santa Mariña passing by Cima de Vila, after the second right curve (this second less pronounced) softens the climb and we have a meadow with a track on the left, we park.

Approach: (machine translated)
If we only have one vehicle we will have to go to Cima de Vila and go up the road to the indicated track.
In both options we will continue along this track to the obvious bed of the stream.

Tour: (machine translated)
A fun descent with jumps, slides and skills, a couple of uncomplicated rappels. Better with spring flows to make the descent more entertaining.

Return: (machine translated)
Arriving at Cavadosa

Coordinates:
Canyon Start 42.4829 -8.4012
Canyon End 42.4888 -8.4049
