Summary: (machine translated) Simple ravine in the park of Gorbea with variable flow according to rainfall but hardly any problems. We could complete the day following the river through the Barruela and Pagomakurre waterfalls. Regulated canyon, prior authorization is required. https://montanaregulada.org/area/barranco-askotxi
Hydrology: (machine translated) Abundant, it is a very open canyon with no major dangers.
Access: (machine translated) On the N240 we reach Areatza, in the village we take the detour to Gorbea Natural Park. We go up the track for about 3kms and we find a track on the left. If we take two cars we can park here. We continue along the track to a parking area called "Larreder".
Approach: (machine translated) A few meters down a track that in 5min takes us to the head of the ravine.
Tour: (machine translated) Gully without great interest. Simple, in a quite aesthetic environment and with a waterfall of 23m. Multitude of slides and almost immediate access.
Return: (machine translated) Arriving at the bridge we take the track to the left. If we have left a car at the exit of this track we will arrive in 10min. Otherwise we have to go up the road to Larreder.
