Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Dry ravine, open and little excavated. One could say that it is a collector's ravine. Best avoided in summer

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Almost all the way to the right towards the access path.

Access: (machine translated)
Crevillente ravines situation
By the A7 we go to Crevillente. If we go from Alicante we leave by the N340 we enter the town.
Situation parking and access to Crevillente ravines
Just at the entrance of Crevillente we take the first street on the right, a wide avenue that leads us to the north of the village, we pass by the health center leaving it on the left. We will continue straight ahead and then take some streets to the left in search of Calle Molinos. We will leave the village leaving the Hermitage of Sant Pascual on the left, we continue along the same road towards "Els Pontets" we will continue straight ahead for 1 km where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Access to Barbereta and Alquitrá ravines
We leave by the track towards the PR CV109, just at the confluence of the ravines of alquitrá and barbereta there is a path that crosses the ravine of alquitrá to go up by the orographic right of the ravine. We will arrive at the Collado del Campanar where we will follow the path up towards the Pico la Vella, soon we will see a post and we will be able to go down to the riverbed.

Tour: (machine translated)
With the exception of R18, the rest will not provide us with much

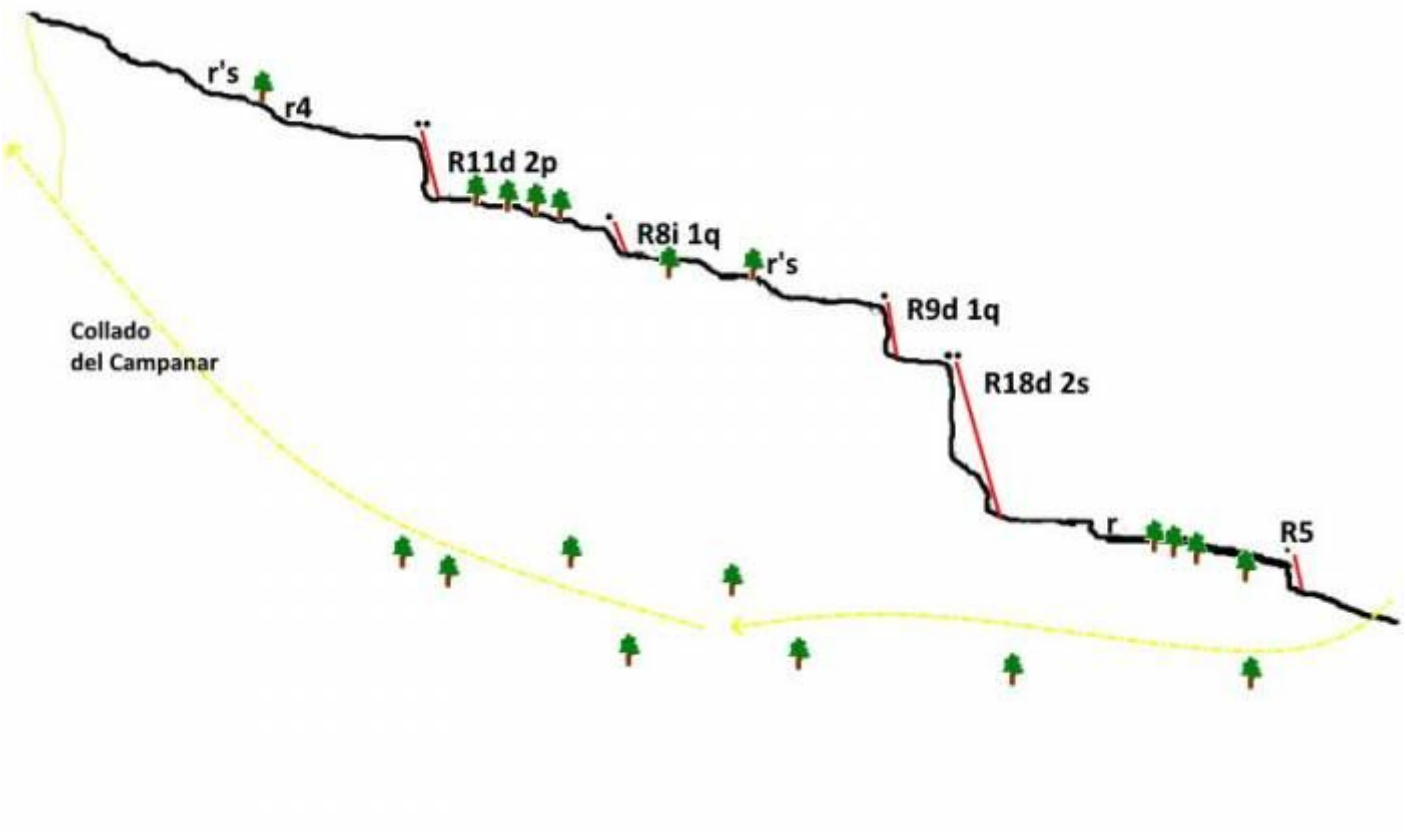

Return: (machine translated)
At the confluence with Barbereta we will take the path and the access track.
