For the access car we will follow almost 1km until a left curve where a track comes out on the right.

Approach: (machine translated)
By the track that comes out on the right about 800m until we have the Araca channel on our left. We will get in here following the channel, in sections we will go over it. Be very careful because it is in disuse and the cover is breaking. We will pass the area of the handrail, where the channel narrows and we will have to be extremely cautious, after this point the channel disappears and we have the installation to descend to the riverbed.

Tour:
Ver topo

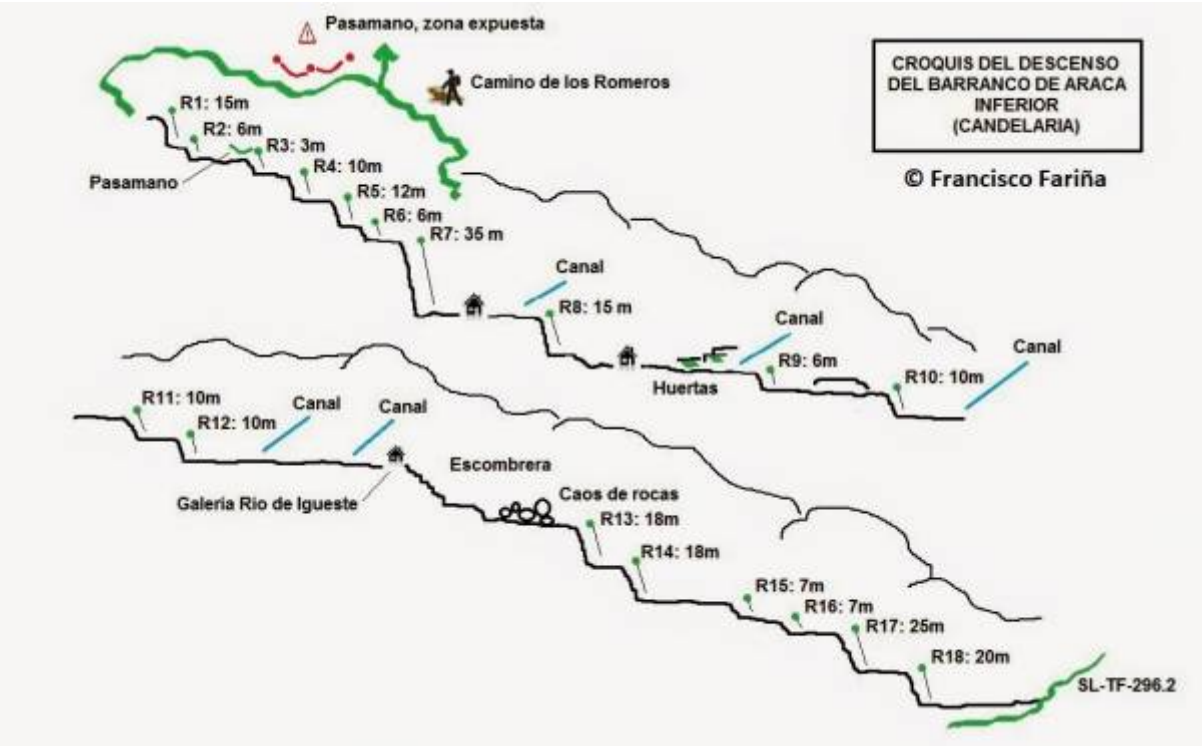

Return: (machine translated)
Access to Araca Inf, after a landslide area we will be attentive to the path that descends from the road on the left.
