Summary: (machine translated)
Open, through an impressive beech forest and with beautiful waterfalls after rain. Autumn days are the best time to catch it with water and in all its splendor. We will find many skills that we will be able to assure from natural. Perfect to combine with Rovente.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Yes, through the forest

Access: (machine translated)
We are located in the port of Tornos on N629
Location of Provedo and Rovente bcos.
At p.k. 52,8, going down the Cantabrian side, in the right curve there is a track on the left. We go down it, after 300m we have a crossing, we go to the left, we make those left curves and we park before another track that comes out on our right.

Approach: (machine translated)
Access bcos Provedo and Rovente
We continue walking along the track that goes up to the upper track, access to the mills. Once on the upper track, we continue about 500m to a hut, just before the left curve, we turn right on a path that goes to the hut of Rovente, we pass it and go to the next watercourse, here we have the hut of Provedo, under the high of Fuenteprovedo and its mills. We follow the riverbed until the first difficulties.

Tour: (machine translated)
Open, through a beautiful beech forest

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we will reach the remains of an old disused track. We will go to the right, cross the Rovente river in its escape between the upper and the lower one and continue to the track where we parked.
