Summary: (machine translated) Alpine ravine in a beautiful setting under the watchful eye of the Pica d'Estats. Caution with the flows that in spring can be very high. Regulated ravine (Parc Natural de l'Alt Pirineu in Lleida) To request authorization: https://parcsnaturals.gencat.cat/ca/xarxa-de-parcs/alt-pirineu/gaudeix-del-parc/consells/regulacio-activitats/index.html
Hydrology: (machine translated) Several along the entire route but always on the orographic left side
Access: Por la N260 hasta Sort, una vez allí nos desviamos por la C13 hacia Llavorsí. En Llavorsí, justo a la entrada, tras el puente giraremos a la derecha por la L504 a Alins/Ribera de Cardós/Tavascán siguiendo el río Cardós, valle amplio y magnífico. A los casi 4kms tendremos una rotonda, seguiremos de frente hacia Alins/Areu por la L510 (hacia la Vall Ferrera). Por este tramo de carretera nos iremos adentrando entre las altas cumbres buscando los hermosos pueblos de la Vall Ferrera, Araós, Alins, Areu. Mientras las montañas poco a poco estrechan el valle, un valle húmedo incluso en el estío, la carretera poco a poco va perdiendo entidad hasta llegar a Areu. A partir de aquí, dejamos la carretera y continuamos por una pista forestal transitando por entre los bosques mientras ascendemos por el frondoso valle. Iremos dejando pequeños aparcamientos a lo largo de toda la pista para las múltiples rutas de senderismo que hay en esta zona. Seguiremos la pista hasta casi los 1800m en la Molinassa, en donde aparcaremos.
Approach: (machine translated) We will leave the track to cross the river on our way to the Vallferrera Refuge. We will leave it behind zigzagging up this first demanding stretch towards the Pica d'Estats. When we reach the post that indicates the Pica, the path softens and gradually turns northward into the valley until it reaches an elevation of almost 2100m. At this point we will see the river on our left and a small path down the slope, among the trees to go down. NOTE: It is outlined 1,5h of approach until here, but in case of being in a hurry in 1h you can arrive (with the sweat that entails).
