Summary: (machine translated)
Unequipped ravine with only one rappel of a natural, with no other interest than its scenic beauty and a huge amount of tuffs destroyed by the greed of some "local" companies.
A huge landslide fell into the upper part of the riverbed years ago, and there are still many huge and unstable blocks. A descent is not recommended.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Throughout most of the route

Access: (machine translated)
On the C16 from Berga to Puigcerda. We will pass Cercs and just at the p.k. 110 we will have the detour to the right to Malanyeu. We will climb almost 1.5kms on this road, just after a left turn we have another less sharp right with parking space on our left and with the stream next to us.

Approach: (machine translated)
Just go down to the creek

Tour: (machine translated)
Nice formations, generally little water and very easy rappels.
Caution, it seems that some have been uninstalled, but almost all of them can be climbed.

Return: (machine translated)
Before reaching a bridge over a track (we could also park here if we have two cars) we can take a path to the right.
