Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Interesting dry canyon although quite decomposed and with some undergrowth. Much better to do it far from the hottest days and hours, to combine with Tío Malito.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Yes, almost at any time, it is an open channel.

Access: (machine translated)
Between Tibi and Xixona by the CV810
We head towards the pass of Clot, once we have passed it towards Tibi, at km. 5.5 we have a parking place on the right,

Approach: (machine translated)
We are parked right at the end of our ravine so we go uphill on the orographic right, to take the edge, where we will find traces of a path. By this border we will go up to the 950 level, we will see to our right some pines that we will have to surpass above in the first stream, now without losing height we go to the second stream, our descent.

Tour:

Return: (machine translated)
We follow the riverbed to the road
